PRICE FIVE CENTS

The War Today

By GUY RHODES
AGAINST EGYPT

The battle of Britain smouldered today, but the battle of Africa burst into action which experts believe will bring early successes to the Italians, but final victory to the British and Egyptians.

Benito Mussolini, forgetting a recent promise not to attack Egypt, sent his forces from Libya against the ancient kingdom, but Egyptian authorities said the only Italian soldiers on their soil were several hundred prisoners.

Mussolini ordered roughly 500,000 Italian and native troops into three operations: against Egypt, against Kenya colony and against British Somaliland. The Egyptian campaign was considered the really important one, for its success would threaten the Suez Canal toward which the Duce has shown covetousness ever since he embarked on the policy of an "Italian" Mediterranean.

OPPOSING FORCES

In the Egyptian campaign Italy has 250,000 men commanded by the veteran desert warrior Marshal Rodolfo Graziani.

Opposing these is a smaller British force composed for the most part of veteran desert warriors and commanded by General Sir Archibald Wavell, who has fought campaigns in India, Egypt, Palestine and Trans-Jordan.

The British force is highly mobile, possessed of high striking power, and it controls the water supply for the battle zone.

Mussolini, as usual, omitted the formality of declaring war before striking at a country which had remained non-belligerent, if not neutral. The Egyptian army, trained and armed by Britain, presumably now will be called upon to fight.

DESPERATION

The Italians probably will find soon that they have a tough proposition on their hands. It is their job to attack while the British fight an offensive defence, harrying them, breaking their supply lines and communications and cutting off their water supply.

Lack of water probably will give the Italian army in the desert as much trouble as anything. Troops must drink or die, engines must have water or seize and stop. Both men and engines need more water in a land where the temperature rockets from the chill 40's of night time to the blazing 120's of noon.

To Mussolini the new campaign may be one of desperation to seek the products of the rich Nile, once the granary for ancient Rome, the metals and fibres he needs to run his war machine.

THE STAKES

If he should win he would win a lot and Britain would lose greatly, perhaps having to surrender her control of the Near East altogether. That would mean loss of the Persian gulf oil supplies, loss of influence in Turkey

ESCAPED U-BOAT PRISONER—Walter Kurt Reich, right, German submarine crewman, tells K. Bockem, assistant German consul at Boston, how he escaped from a British prison ship in the St. Lawrence River July 15 and made his way from Canada to the United States. Discovered by immigration authorities trudging along a country road in northern Maine, Reich told how he wriggled through a porthole of the ship bringing him to Canada, swam for two hours, and lived on berries during his two-week walk toward what he hoped was freedom. He is being detained by U.S. immigration officials.

Final Bulletins

Fight Off Brazil?

Rio de Janeiro (AP)—The newspaper A Noite reported without confirmation from any official source this afternoon that loud explosions, "perhaps" from a new encounter between the shell-scarred British armed merchantman Alcantara and a German raider had been heard at sea last night.

The newspaper said its report came from the crew of the Brazilian ship Ararangua at Victoria, 300 miles northwest of Rio de Janeiro. The newspaper said the crew saw "two armed ships."

Child Ship Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation authorizing United States ships to enter belligerent waters to evacuate child-refugees was passed by the House of Representatives this afternoon and sent to the Senate.

and loss of prestige in the Orient—to the advantage of Japan.

However, strategists are confident Britain will not lose. Besides the whole Mohammedan world dislikes the Nazi-Fascist doctrine of racialism and conquest and now Mussolini has tossed an armful of fuel on to the smouldering fire.

He has attacked without warning the world's leading independent Mohammedan country.

Bomb Factories

WITH THE R.A.F. BOMBER COMMAND SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND (AP)—Twin-motored Wellington bombers rained tons of bombs on German factories in the Ruhr and on Nazi-held airports in the Netherlands early today despite the stickiest weather in weeks.

The squadron reported successful attacks against eight air-dromes and one factory.

This squadron, which carried out a 17-plane raid, made but a small part of the attack which hammered Germany and German-occupied territory throughout the night and early morning.

Invite Foreigners

OTTAWA (CP)—By an order-in-council announced this afternoon by Defence Minister Ralston, citizens of a foreign country enlisting in the active militia of Canada may do so without taking the oath of allegiance prescribed by the Militia Act, if by so doing they would lose their citizenship.

Men enlisting without taking the oath, however, will be required to make the regular declaration that they serve in the Canadian Active Service Force "so long as an emergency" exists.

Asks Greater Effort

LONDON (CP Cable)—Herbert Morrison, Minister of Supply, appealed to the Empire countries in a broadcast tonight "to confine and still further increase your efforts" toward successful prosecution of the war.

Mine Sweeper Sunk

LONDON (CP)—The Admiralty announced tonight that the minesweeping trawler River Clyde had been sunk by a German mine.

Navy Insulted: Picture Comes Down

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The roisterous title—"Sailors and Floozies"—was bad enough, but when the United States navy saw that painting, it knew it had been outraged.

And the result was that Paul Cadmus' conception of a sailor's diversions ashore came down in a hurry from where it was hanging in the Palace of Fine Arts at Treasure Island.

Conceding the painting was "unnecessarily dirty," Dr. Walter Heintz, one of the officials at the time arts exhibit, said "it was a masterpiece work. It takes a stand against shelling it."

But so far as the navy is concerned, it's not a masterpiece and is just unpleasant," he explained.

"The navy wanted to make a do about the picture, so we thought it simpler to remove it."

Italians Launch Mass Drive Egypt and Suez Mussolini's Objective

LONDON (CP)—A concentration of at least two Italian divisions was reported on the Libyan frontier near the Mediterranean coast today and British military circles declared "it looks as though the Italians are ready" to advance into Egypt on a large scale attempt to fulfill one of Mussolini's dreams—possession of Suez.

Official circles at Cairo denied, however, that the Italians already had crossed the frontier.

"The only Italian officers at present on Egyptian soil are one general and 818 officers and other ranks—prisoners," said a semi-official statement at British headquarters in Egypt.

Military circles in London said the two Italian divisions were concentrated in the Bardia area, adjacent to the Egyptian frontier.

This concentration is opposed by a small mobile British force of expert desert fighters who have been carrying out the first phase of the operations in Africa, a sort of guerrilla warfare of lightning raids, skirmishes and reconnaissance expeditions.

Britons were warned today by the London Daily Express, which is owned by the Minister for Aircraft Production, Lord Beaverbrook, that they may expect "some Italian successes" in the war in Africa.

Threat to Britain Tried as Diversion?

These signs of an impending offensive against Egypt, which would have as its ultimate objective the severing of the British Empire's control of the eastern Mediterranean, coupled with a triple drive against British Somaliland, raised the belief in many quarters that the Axis next big objective is the continent of Africa.

In the eyes of these observers the reported preparations for the attack on England are for the purpose of diversion.

A bitter struggle between the British and Italians in Somaliland was forecast by military circles, who said the main Italian column is striking at Berbera, on the coast of the Gulf of Aden. This column is between "6,000 and 7,000 strong, with some guns and tanks," it was reported by military sources here.

3 Enemy Columns, Seen on Move

The first of the three columns of Italians, who entered the British protectorate on Sunday, moved toward Gargara and Zeila. The second and main force pointed toward Hargeisa, 30 miles from the frontier and about 100 miles along a "highway" to Berbera. The third is aimed at Odweina, 60 miles east of Hargeisa.

"Zeila is a coastal village of little importance, with a road running 150 miles along the coast to Berbera," said British military quarters. "Possession of either port will mean little to the Italians, who, of course, do not control the sea."

Both Zeila and Berbera are across from the British protectorate of Aden, however, and the Italians may hope ultimately to be in a position to close the southern entrance to the Red Sea.

British Expected To Counter-attack

British military circles said the Italian columns moving on Hargeisa and Odweina had to cross high hills over a single track road "barely negotiable for vehicles."

Neutral military observers said these hill roads were possible points for the first British counter-attack.

Italians Enter Somaliland Towns

CAIRO (AP)—A British communiqué today said:

"On August 5 an Italian column entered Zeila unopposed. (The town is a Gulf of Aden port in British Somaliland.)

"The same day Hargeisa was captured by a strong force which included tanks, artillery, machine guns and aircraft. Our delaying force fell back after inflicting severe casualties, including three tanks. Our casualties were slight. (The capture of this place followed a 32-mile march through the desert by the enemy.)

"During the morning of August 5 Odweina (a third objective of the enemy's offensive) was occupied by the enemy with a force estimated at 2,000 with guns and armored fighting vehicles.

"A small motorized force of the Somaliland Camel Corps harassed the enemy, themselves suffering no loss.

Few Casualties In Raid on Haifa

"In Palestine enemy aircraft again raided Haifa during the morning of August 6. A number of bombs were dropped, nearly all of which fell harmlessly in the sea or on waste ground.

"No bombs fell in the town. Military casualties were nil, and civilian casualties under 10, as the defences came quickly into action and opened heavy fire on the raiders.

"In the western desert some enemy movements were reported, otherwise all was quiet.

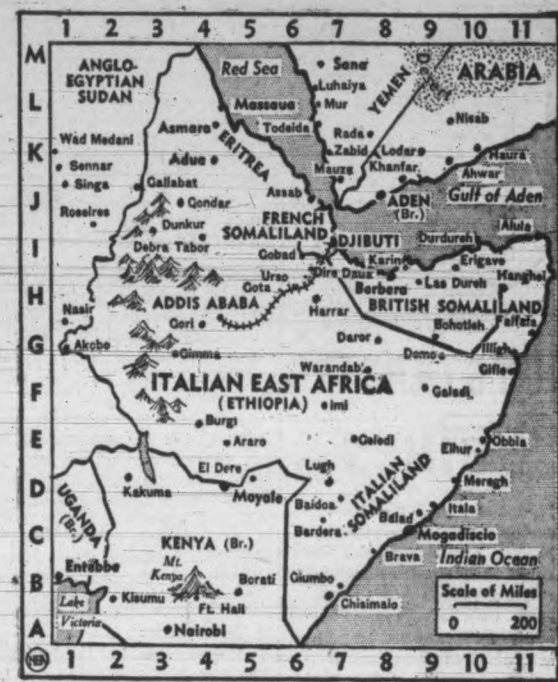

Lack of Water Hampers Italians

By LARRY ALLEN

CAIRO (AP)—The African War, suddenly assuming a more important part in the big conflict, may be decided as much by water as by bullets and bombs.

Britain's most powerful natural defenses against the troops assembled by Mussolini in the Libyan desert are thirst and heat.

There is a waterless stretch of blazing desert and almost 400 miles between the Italian posi-

Of three towns so far entered by the invading Italians in British Somaliland Zeila is a port on the Gulf of Aden not far southeast of Djibuti, French Somaliland; Hargeisa is 100 miles east of Zeila, and Odweina is 60 miles east of Hargeisa.

Naval Blockade Weakens Enemy

The naval blockade of the Libyan coast already has prevented much-needed supply ships from getting through from Italy, while the R.A.F. has been subjecting Graziani's bases at Tobruk, Bardia and Derna to daily attacks.

Every shot fired by the Italians brings the day closer when Mussolini's African empire must crumble, British officials say, because the British navy makes it impossible for ships to bring fresh aid.

The British forces have a line of oases to fall back on.

U.S., Soviet, Japan Warships Move In Pacific

HONOLULU (AP)—The United States fleet has moved to the Hawaiian area for an extended stay and will continue intensive training here on an extended basis, it was indicated today by the arrival of additional gunnery facilities and two garbage barges from San Pedro.

The fleet, under command of Admiral James O. Richardson, has been in Hawaiian waters since the 1940 war games held in March and April.

RUSSIANS EXERCISE

NEW YORK (AP)—The Russian fleet, made up of light and heavy naval units, submarines and aircraft, has sailed into the Pacific on "large scale maneuvers," said a British Broadcasting Company announcement picked up today by the National Broadcasting Company's short wave service.

NO TOKYO STATEMENT

TOKYO (AP)—Declining to discuss all warship movements, the Japanese Admiralty today neither confirmed nor denied a London report from Hongkong that many Japanese warships and transports had been sighted southbound from Formosa.

The report, carried by the Exchange Telegraph, news agency, said merchant seamen had sighted the ships. It said their mission was not known.

NAZI-CHURCH DEAL

ROME—A deal between the Vatican and the Nazi government is under way, with representatives now conferring. The deal will cover Nazi-held territories, except Poland.

While this is under way, however, Regime Fascista, authoritative Fascist Party organ has opened a new press attack on the official Vatican paper Osservatore Romano.

"Friends of our enemies cannot be permitted to live undisturbed in the heart of Rome," Regime Fascista declared in an editorial interpreted as a forerunner to demands for suppression of the Vatican paper.

'Stunt' Costs Greene Movie Role

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Darryl Zanuck, production head of Twentieth Century Fox Studio, said here he would not cast Richard Greene in any pictures in the immediate future because of the possibility he might be called for service in the Canadian army.

Greene was scheduled to start work soon in a movie that will take 10 weeks to complete. He is a British subject, 22 years old.

He recently flew to Vancouver and Victoria to enlist in the Canadian active service force, but said he failed to find an opening after leaving his name with one unit that wasn't recruiting, and passing up all that were taking on men.

Col. Kingham and other military bodies in Victoria declared the flight to Canada a "publicity stunt," adding a private's uniform awaited any militarily acceptable Briton wishing to join any one of a number of units.

COLONEL ANNOYED

Col. Leslie of the Seaforth's today refused either to confirm or deny that Greene tried to enlist in the Seaforth's. The colonel made it clear he was much annoyed over the whole affair.

737 Weddings

Marriage licenses issued in Vancouver during July totaled 737, breaking all previous records, officials of the Marriage License Bureau announced today.

In July of last year 292 licenses were issued. The figure for last month surpassed the total of 527, established last September.

Neighbors Meet In B.C. Collision

When two cars met in a head-on collision near Merritt, B.C., today the drivers got out, and each found that the other car bore an Alberta license.

When the two—Steven Putnik and P. S. Bossard—compared notes they found they both lived in Calgary, within six blocks of one another, and that they had many mutual friends in that city.

Nazis Can't Kick Over Kickless Beer

BERLIN (AP)—Germans have begun drinking nonalcoholic beer as a beverage that can quench their thirsts and even be consumed at work "without detrimental effects."

An idea attributed to abstemious Adolf Hitler and converted into reality by German chemists, it has just begun to flow from thousands of beer taps.

How it is brewed is a secret, but it looks like beer, tastes like beer and contains the same ingredients—except the alcohol.

The new beverage, production of which has been fixed temporarily at 1,000,000,000 gallons a year, is said to fill a gap left by wartime restrictions and rationing of coffee substitutes, milk and tea.

Nazi press advocates say the basic idea was to create a "companion beverage" which is "appetizing, has the stimulating effects of beer and quenches the thirst without possessing the tiring influence of alcohol."

It is delivered in ordinary wooden kegs and flows from the tap carbonated like real beer.

Call By L.G.

LONDON (CP)—David Lloyd George warned his fellow Welshmen in a broadcast today that "such a tempest as Britain has never before encountered" is about to break upon her and all that she stands for.

But if the people are worthy of their forefathers, he continued, "Britain will pass through this hurricane fearless and erect and will emerge from its rage mightier and more honored and more powerful than ever for the good of mankind."

The occasion of the message was to express sympathy on cancellation of the Eisteddfod, the Welsh national music festival.

Hungary Demands

BUDAPEST (AP)—Hungary (AP)—Rumania was told today through a semi-official envoy that Hungary demands no less than 75 per cent of Transylvania if her 20-year territorial dispute with Rumania is to be settled satisfactorily.

Aldermen Vote Against Houde

MONTREAL (CP)—The city council voted 25 to 4 this afternoon to kill discussion of an agenda item concerning "national registration and conscription," placed on the order paper by Mayor Camille Houde, who since has been interned.

The council then voted 27 to 2 to drop the item—No. 1—from the agenda of the meeting.

The meeting, presided over by Pro-Mayor Edmond Hamelin, heard notice of motion by Alderman James Donnelly to make available to military authorities civic land, buildings and mechanical equipment.

It was such a proposal against which Houde objected in making his anti-registration statement last week.

TO PRESS BLOCKADE

LONDON (CP)—The Ministry of Economic Warfare said today that Britain refuses to deviate from her policy of keeping food shipments out of German-occupied territory and added that there need not be any famine in Europe this winter because the continent's harvests and reserves ought to be adequate with general distribution to prevent any general famine—provided the Germans do not take the best for themselves while leaving the conquered populations hungry.

The ministry's statement followed British press criticism of an implied plea by the United States ambassador to Belgium, John Cudahy, that the British open its blockade for food shipments.

Belgians Still Look To Britain—Cudahy

LONDON (CP)—The common people of Belgium are "almost unanimous in believing that a victory of the British is their only hope of salvation," John Cudahy, United States Minister in Brussels before and during the German invasion, declared today. Mr. Cudahy said "there is no antagonism toward the British in Belgium."

NO EXEMPTIONS TO REGISTRATION

OTTAWA (CP)—Regulations broadening and tightening national registration were issued today in an order-in-council.

Previously exempted classes—Nuns, citizens on active service, inmates of asylums and penitentiaries—are now ordered to be registered.

Employers are required on penalty of $200 fine or three months in jail to require their employees on August 21 to produce registration cards.

Employers are also required to report to the National War Services Department and the "nearest police officer" the name and address and occupation of any unregistered employee. The same penalty is provided for failure to carry out this instruction.

(See page 18 for registration here.)

REGISTER IN PLANTS

Other changes in the regulations permit the registration of employees in plants having more than 100 employees at polling booths to be established in the plants, and the registration of a citizen absent from his ordinary place of residence at the nearest booth.

All Egypt's Cotton Bought By Britain

LONDON (CP)—Richard Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, today announced Britain is setting up a commission to buy the entire 1940 Egyptian cotton crop of 1,600,000 bales (800,000,000 pounds).

This was being done on the appeal of Egypt, whose regular outlets for cotton have been cut off by the war. The purchase will be made before April 4, 1941, he said, at prices of about 14.25 to 15.25 cents a pound.

The British government will bear the whole of any net loss which may arise from the transaction and will share equally with the Egyptian government any net profits.

CAROL GOES FASCIST—A Fascist atmosphere rules when King Carol of Rumania at night makes his first visit to the Bucharest headquarters of the "Party of the People," since cession of Bessarabia to Russia. Garbed in the party's new white-jacketed uniform, he receives the Fascist salute from army officers. Besides the Hitler uniform, the Hitler salute, Carol has now adopted the Hitler moustache.

Firms Here Start Registration

National registration, which begins for the general public on August 19, actually got underway in Victoria today when government servants, inmates of hospitals and employees of large firms began filling out the forms which will tell the government what it wants to know for the mobilization of Canada's human resources.

Sydney Child, registrar, announced that forms have been supplied to a half a dozen firms and offices which may take registrations under special provisions of the act.

Firms with more than 100 employees are permitted to take the advance registration. So also are government institutions, and the hospitals.

Mr. Child said he expected nearly 10,000 persons would be registered in Victoria under this plan before wholesale registration starts on August 19. At the Parliament Buildings alone nearly 1,000 will be taken. Civic staffs will register at the City Hall.

Only those actually employed may register this way, not their families.

Meanwhile Mr. Child is proceeding with the organization for the general registration on the 19th, 20th and 21st. More than 600 persons who have volunteered as deputy registrars will be sworn in next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 737 Fort Street. Offices will be open from 8 in the morning to 10 at night with the volunteer deputies working in three shifts.

Biggest problem in handling upwards of 30,000 who are expected to register in the three-day period will be that of rush hours. For this reason Mr. Child urges that housewives and young people not employed register during the day, leaving the evenings free for workmen and those otherwise tied up during the day.

Word came from Ottawa today that men enlisted in the non-permanent active militia must register the same as civilians.

Special provision has also been made for registering the inmates and staffs of religious or benevolent institutions, hospitals and convalescent homes within the places they are confined. Ailing persons can be registered at their bedsides.

Indians and Eskimos do not have to register.

JAPANESE ASSIST

Arrangements for taking Japanese and Chinese have now been completed.

S. Hemmy, secretary of the Victoria Japanese Association, said today the association has volunteered its services for the registration of all Japanese in this and adjoining districts.

"We are glad to help the government," he said.

Chinese who helped with the registration in the last war have volunteered their services as deputies and interpreters and have been appointed to their duties in Chinatown.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (CP)—Nine survivors of the Greek steamship Roula, sunk by an Italian submarine off Crete, reached Alexandria today after a five-day struggle against heavy seas that threatened to swamp their lifeboat.

Last-Minute Rush Ends Session

Parliament Takes Recess Till Nov. 5

OTTAWA (CP)—The first session of Canada's 19th Parliament adjourned at 1:12 this afternoon, E.D.T., after sitting since May 16. It will convene again November 5.

While the adjournment was taken to the second last month of the year, the members of both the Commons and the Senate were instructed to be ready to assemble earlier should developments necessitate calling Parliament before that date.

New social and war legislation, reaching deep into the life of the country, became law today when Sir Lyman P. Duff, Deputy Governor-General, gave Royal assent to 24 government measures, four private bills and 61 divorce bills.

JOB INSURANCE

Assent was given to the Unemployment Insurance Act making contributory unemployment insurance compulsory for 2,100,000 workers.

The severity of the war struck a note in the law-making with the enactment of a bill providing the death penalty for acts of treachery.

It received Royal assent. Another important bill which becomes law today was the amendment to the Canada Wheat Act, making new provisions for handling Canada's wheat in grain.

Earlier the Senate had passed the Government's Supply Bill, which had been adopted by the Commons earlier.

ESTIMATES SPEEDED

In its final drive to end the session, the Commons sat 14½ hours, with time out only for meals, and rose at 1:30 this morning to await completion of all business by the Senate and a formal adjournment at noon.

In its last 5½ hours the Commons approved estimates totalling $120,000,000. The $12,000,000 estimate of the Revenue Department went through in about one minute to set a record.

MEIGHEN SPEAKS

Conservative Leader Meighen, speaking briefly this afternoon at the sitting at which the Senate passed the government's supply bill, said that if it was customary to debate financial measures in the Senate he would offer criticism of the inclusion in the bill of some millions of dollars advanced for railway equipment.

He complimented members of the Senate who had remained in attendance during the last days of the session, "the more so since there was no work to do."

Senator Meighen protested that the regulations governing the mobilization for military training had not been tabled in the Senate before adjournment.

Senator Dandurand said it had been hoped to have the regulations ready to be tabled before adjournment, but in any event they followed very closely the statement made in the Commons by Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of National War Services, which statement Senator Dandurand had also read in the Senate.

"I could have told the senator a week ago the regulations would not be tabled before adjournment to give this House an opportunity to discuss them," replied Senator Meighen. "It is making a monkey of Parliament."

More R.A.F. Successes

British Plane Bombs Nazi Planes at Bourget

LONDON (CP)—An Air Ministry statement tonight said a Royal Air Force medium bomber had bombed Le Bourget airport at Paris and that bombs had landed near German aircraft and hangars.

The bulletin said the raid was able to drop his load and retreat into the clouds before anti-aircraft batteries could be brought into action.

The pilot reported that several large twin-engine German aircraft were on the runways and others of medium size near the hangars when he swooped down from covering clouds, completely surprising the airport personnel.

The ministry's daily communique reported Royal Air Force planes had bombed an oil plant at Hamburg and started many fires on airfields in Holland and northern Germany. Nazi fighters raided Britain sporadically today after a night of diminished activity.

High explosive bombs dropped in a southwest England area wrecked two farmhouses and damaged several others. The occupants escaped. The death of a 64-year-old woman was attributed to the shock of hearing the explosions.

Planes believed to be German were reported over an inland town in southeastern England.

Last night, said the Ministry of Home Security, Nazi crews dropped some incendiary bombs in two districts of Scotland. A shower of leaflets containing excerpts from Hitler's "peace or destruction" Reichstag speech fell in the Bristol Channel area.

Woman Captures Parachutist

Lady Buckland, Unafraid, Drives Nazi in Own Car

LONDON (CP)—Lady Buckland, widow of Lord Buckland, and sister-in-law of Lord Camrose, publisher of the London Daily Telegraph, today captured a Nazi aviator who had been roaming England since he bailed out of his disabled plane nine days ago. The military and the police had sought him continuously after his machine fell.

Lady Buckland came on him as she motored along a country road near Bristol.

Newbury Burks, a servant of Woolton House, gave this version of the capture.

"Lady Buckland was out driving when she saw the man step into the road from the woods. He was wearing a foreign uniform and was very dishevelled."

"She at once realized this was the 'wanted' man. She spoke to her chauffeur, who stopped the car and questioned the man. The aviator was in a very exhausted state and, although he could speak only a few words of English, indicated he had been afraid to surrender earlier because he thought he would be killed immediately."

"By drawing his fingers across his throat like a knife, he showed the chauffeur the sort of fate he expected."

"The chauffeur ordered the man into a car and drove him to a police station. The Nazi, with his torn clothes and a heavy growth of beard, was somewhat fearsome sight, but Lady Buckland wasn't at all nervous."

Nazis Would Get Food Sent Belgians

LONDON (CP)—Statements made by the United States Ambassador to Belgium, John Cudahy, concerning possible famine in German-held territories on the continent were criticized by the London press today.

The Daily Express said any United States food sent to the peoples on the continent could be counted on to reach the Nazi war machine instead. It declared that if famine visits the continent this winter the Nazis are to be blamed.

"Mr. Cudahy is an honest adviser," said the Express, "though, of course, the Nazis were on their best behavior when he was observing. His point of view will carry great weight, for many Americans will be inclined to blame the British blockade for the forthcoming famine. . . . "The best reply to Mr. Cudahy's story is to tell the world how Hitler hopes to starve our women and children."

The News Chronicle, terming Cudahy's statements "a sensational," reported unofficial comment in London circles was "sharply critical."

"It was generally felt," the News Chronicle said, "that on grounds of good taste alone this is hardly the time for a foreign diplomat, ostensibly in England, to publicly private visit to probe openly the German conduct of their invasion of an innocent neutral and by implication to make it appear that Britain is responsible for famine in Belgium and other German-occupied territory."

Butchart's Hosts To 2nd Battalion

Men of the Second Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment, took a few hours off this morning from training duties and went to "Benvenuto," as guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart.

The genial host and hostess personally welcomed Lieut. Colonel Walter Butchart and his 600 men and gave them the run of the vast estate. After walking among the gardens and taking many pictures, the men sat on the lawn under the trees and enjoyed refreshments, under the hospitable eye of Mrs. Butchart. The band played selections during the party.

WANTS TO FLY AT 77

Too old to fight in the first Great War, Edwin Baggs of Vancouver wants to fly in this one although he is 77. He wrote to Air Minister Power that he was as active as many men 20 or 25 years younger and considered flying appeared the most likely opening for him in Imperial defence.

The minister advised Mr. Baggs the age limit for pilot training in the Royal Canadian Air Force was 28, but that he might find some other means of service through application to the National War Services Department headed by Agriculture Minister Gardiner.

English born, Mr. Baggs came to Canada in 1910. He returned to England at his own expense in 1914, but was rejected for active service because of his age. He then turned to engineering work for the duration under the Munitions Department, resuming residence in Canada in 1919.

'Howling Hell Now— Worse Next Winter'

LONDON (CP)—John Cudahy, formerly United States minister at Brussels, declared today the food situation in German-occupied Belgium was "very, very serious."
"Belgium imports 75 per cent of her wheat," he said. "Present supplies, with severe rationing—225 grams, or half a pound, of bread per person per day will last until September 1, or at best until early October."
"If the continent is a howling hell now, what do you think it will be this winter?"
"All industry has stopped. Thousands upon thousands of people left the country and there are still more than 2,500,000 Belgians somewhere in France."
"In their homeland, harvests rotting in the sun."

KING LEOPOLD DEFENDED
Mr. Cudahy, en route to the United States, said the Belgians "know that British victory is their only hope of salvation," but at the same time defended the action of King Leopold in surrendering his army and exposing the British expeditionary force to the danger of annihilation.

"I feel we should try and see both sides of this predicament, not judge harshly on insufficient facts," he said.

"Put yourself in his place. He commanded an army of half a million men which intermingled with as many panic-stricken refugees. He was haunted by the thought that each hour he continued the resistance it meant death, not only to his soldiers, but to those helpless people."

"Faced by the prospect of this sacrifice of human life, he had no other choice."
On the food question, the minister said that unless supplies were found by mid-September, a condition "close to famine" will prevail.

Lapointe Not Quitting, Staying Until Victory

OTTAWA—Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, who as the Liberal leader of French-Canada returned to Ottawa to deal with the Mayor Houdet, denied reports in circulation around Ottawa to the effect he was leaving the government.
Suffering from diabetes, he has been building up physically during the last couple of weeks under doctors' orders at his summer home near here.
"There is no truth in the suggestion that Quebec province has not received national registration and compulsory military service for home defence with hearty approval," said Mr. Lapointe. "As a minister from this province, I have had a lot of anonymous letters and letters threatening my life. I pay no attention to them. I want to tell you that Quebec has received the principle of national registration and compulsory military service in defence of Canada as loyally and as heartily as any section of the Dominion."

"I have no intention of going to the Senate, of resigning my cabinet post, or in any other way ceasing to do my utmost in support of the government's war prosecution. Unless my health breaks down completely, I will be at Mr. King's side until the end. Personally, I completely support national registration and I can speak from certain knowledge that my province does so also. I have no thought of laying aside my work until this war is won by a victory for the Empire and for Canada. I know the heart of my province and I can unreservedly say the same for Quebec."

FRANKLIN BALLAD BELIEVED FOUND

BOSTON (AP)—Discovery of a ballad that may have been the first literary work of Benjamin Franklin, lost for 175 years, was revealed last night by Maurice Babcock Jr., son of the keeper of Boston Light.

Titled "The Lighthouse Tragedy," the ballad was mentioned in Franklin's autobiography, but Franklin students have sought it in vain.

Babcock said he found the tattered, yellowed, single sheet in old English characters in the pocket of a rotting leather jacket he came across in the ruins of an old house on lonely Middle Brewster Island, in Boston harbor.

The autobiography relates that Franklin wrote it as a boy of 14 at the inducement of his brother, a printer. News of the drowning of George Worthington, first keeper of Boston Light, his wife Annie and their daughter Ruth, had just come to the mainland. The tragedy became the topic of the ballad.

The brother printed it and young Benjamin hawked copies in Boston streets.

Powder Plant Wrecked, 3 Men Killed in Ohio

LEBANON, O. (AP)—Three men were killed today in a terrific explosion that wrecked a powder-processing building of the King Powder Company, at nearby King's Mills.

They were Charles Resibois, 55; Hobart Combs, 25, and William Reed, 45.

The powder plant, one of the oldest in the United States, occupies scores of small buildings along a one-and-a-half-mile frontage.

Detective Still Looks For Judge Crater

NEW YORK (AP)—The stranger-than-fiction disappearance of Joseph Force Crater, the New York State Supreme Court justice, who stepped into a taxi and out of life 10 years ago today, still is on the active "missing persons" list at police headquarters.

He is dead in court records, he is dead to his wife, who collected $20,561 insurance on his life, but "lives" in police files.

The two detectives originally assigned to the case are retired. Another, Detective Clinton Schlusener, works on it today.

"And if we don't find Crater or indisputable evidence of his death before Schlusener retires, another man will be assigned," said Captain John Stein.

On August 3, 1930, the independently wealthy jurist, then 41, returned from his Maine vacation to New York. Three days later he arranged through a secretary to withdraw $5,100 from two banks, ate supper at a Broadway night spot and stepped into a cab alone.

No trace of him—or of the taxi—has been found since.

Today, Emil K. Ellis, attorney for Crater's wife, who remarried last year, insists the judge was killed by two men who waited for him in a taxi cab, and dumped the body in New Jersey meadows—but he won't discuss his source or evidence.

Wants Defence Treaty

NEW YORK (CP)—The New York Herald Tribune, reiterating editorially its belief "urgent national defence" demands the dispatch of spare United States destroyers to aid Great Britain, urged anew today negotiation of a defence treaty with Canada.

Alarm Expressed Over Japanese On B.C. Coast

VANCOUVER (CP)—A special committee today undertook its task of drafting a resolution to be presented to the next meeting of the city council, expressing alarm at the presence of large numbers of Japanese scattered along the British Columbia coast.

If approved, the resolution will be sent to Ottawa.

This action was decided on in finance committee after Alderman Halford Wilson had concluded a talk on a long list of charges against Japanese residents of Vancouver.

Mr. Wilson, who long has denounced the issuing of trade licenses to Orientals in this city, said that "for many years a far-sighted group has watched a situation develop which would menace the safety of our people."

"In Canada," he said, "and in British Columbia particularly, we have come to believe the Japanese residents are not loyal to the Empire, but are ferociously working for their own gods in far off Japan."

"That situation exists today just as it did years ago, except that there are far more Japanese here than there were at that time," he continued. "They have given no support to our war effort and have made few donations to the Red Cross."

He said he could see a menace to the safety of the British Columbia coast in regard to fleets of Japanese fishing boats which he said "could readily be transformed into torpedo-carrying warcraft by a hostile group."

'DANGEROUS'

In the fiscal year ended March 31 last, 36 Japanese were admitted to Canada, almost all of them women and children, Resources Minister T. A. Crerar told the Commons yesterday during discussion of his departmental estimates.

(Howard C. Green, Conservative, Vancouver South, asked the minister for the figures.

"I can give the figures, but I realize when we are getting into this we are approaching the danger zone," the minister said.

"Well, it is certainly a danger zone for British Columbia," Mr. Green observed.)

CHINESE TROOPS AT INDO-CHINA LINE

LONDON (CP)—A Reuter (British news agency) dispatch from Shanghai today said the Chinese were reported to have warned French authorities they would take military measures if the Japanese were permitted to establish bases in French Indo-China.

It quoted the Chinese press as reporting Chinese troops were moving toward the frontier of Indo-China and that defensive preparations were being rushed.

Chinese reports from Shanghai two days ago said Japan had made new, sweeping demands on the French Indo-China government, including the right to use the French railway into the Chinese province of Yunnan for military operations and to establish a military or naval base on the Indo-China coast.

An official Japanese spokesman in Tokyo, however, denied the reports.

New Liberal M.P.

LONDON (CP)—Harcourt Johnstone, secretary of the Department of Overseas Trade, who has held a ministerial post of nearly three months without a parliamentary seat, was returned by acclamation today as Liberal member of the House of Commons for West Middlesex.

The seat was made vacant by the appointment of Frank Kingsley Griffith, Liberal, to a county court judgeship. In the 1935 general election Mr. Griffith polled 13,689 votes against 12,764 for H. Kegie, Labor, and 11,387 for W. A. Spofforth, National Labor.

Ex-Alderman Held

MONTREAL (CP)—Thomas Gerald McManus was held in Montreal today by Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers who took him into custody yesterday at Gentilly, Que., on the south side of the St. Lawrence River, not far from Three Rivers.

He will be transferred to Regina on request of police officials there, in connection with what they said were Communist activities in Saskatchewan. McManus is a former alderman of Regina.

Police officers in Montreal would make no comment on the arrest, other than to confirm that it had been made and that McManus was in custody in Montreal.

CANADA TRUSTS FRENCH MINISTER

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada has permitted the French minister, Rene Ristelhueber, to remain at this post in Ottawa and carry out his duties, Prime Minister Mackenzie King told the House of Commons.

He said he believed this met with the approval of the British government, although it had, to a certain extent, severed relations with France.

The Prime Minister said he was convinced the French minister would not be sending to his government any information which might be injurious to Canada if it should fall into the hands of German authorities in France.

If there was any possibility of that happening it would not be permitted by the Canadian government.

"Mr. Ristelhueber is a very honorable man and has given us every reason to believe his sole desire is similar to our own. He is doing everything he can to relieve the situation," said Mr. King.

The question came up during discussion of external affairs department estimates and was raised by Dr. King Hazen, Conservative, Saint John's, N.B., who asked for a statement on the status of the new French minister, who came to Canada shortly before the French capitulation.

"In relations between countries today there are circumstances that are difficult and sometimes critical," Mr. King said. "Canada's policy has been to avoid anything that would add to these difficulties."

There had been "certain severances" of relations between the United Kingdom and France, but not complete severance. French consuls-general were still functioning normally in Great Britain, and the Empire.

"Our policy has been to permit the French minister to remain in Canada for the present," Mr. King said. "He understands the situation is a delicate one, and he is here to assist, not to do anything that will embarrass us."

"The situation is well known in the United Kingdom and I think we are meeting their desire in not severing relations with France."

PURCHASE TAX SOON IN FORCE

LONDON (CP)—Sir Kingsley Wood, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told the Commons he hoped to bring the new purchase tax into effect in two months.

The public would have adequate notice before further taxation was imposed. He urged the utmost savings be devoted to the state which, he said, had received a total of £758,000,000 ($3,372,900,000) in loans and bonds in the first 36 weeks of the savings campaign.

Sir Kingsley told the House, which had been critical of his recent budget as "timorous," that the budget deficit of £220,000,000 (£960,000,000) was not a measure of a potential inflationary gap that must be bridged by taxation or new savings if demand is not to outstrip production.

He said a number of unequi-mated factors would reduce the amount to be covered by savings and new taxation to materially less than the estimated deficit.

Some of the roots and herbs in Mosby's Tonic clear away the gas and pains from the stomach; others help cleanse the bowels; still others invigorate the kidney and liver action, and others relieve the pain of neuritic and rheumatic trouble, due to contaminated, clogged system. Weak, sickly, constipated men and women get such a cleansing and invigorating from Mosby's Tonic that they soon feel different all over.

People all over Victoria and throughout this section are publicly endorsing MOSBY'S Tonic. For instance, just a few days ago, Mrs. Sydney Carreck of Lake Cowichan, B.C., made the following statement:

Distressing Gas and Bloat and Indigestion Pain

"For a long period of time I had been a regular victim of stomach gas and pain," said Mrs. Carreck. "At first I would have only occasional spells of indigestion, but gradually this became worse, until finally, I got to a place where I suffered after almost every meal. Large quantities of gas would form and bloat me up, and at times I couldn't breathe right, due to the pressure from this gas. I got nervous as a result of this suffering. I was down and out, in general, for it just seemed like my food wouldn't do me any good. It just laid in my stomach and refused to digest properly and caused many hours of distress."

New Compound Contains 15 Roots and Herbs

MOSBY'S Tonic contains 15 Roots and Herbs. These herbal extracts are blended with 5 Other Splendid Medicinal Agents. So it accomplishes several things at the same time. For instance, it acts on bowels as a laxative and helps cleanse out old impure substance that often causes headaches, dizzy spells, skin eruptions and worn-out feeling. It brings forth gas and bloat from stomach and relieves gas pains and swelling and gas distress. It helps Nature flush excess impurity from kidneys which may have been the real reason all along for backache and night pining. It stimulates the flow of liver bile. In short, due to its many ingredients, this medicine acts as a carminative, laxative, cholagogue and diuretic all at the same time. Weak, worn-out people write us daily they get such a cleansing and invigorating from Mosby's Tonic that they soon feel like different men and women. Trying to Do His Bit

MUSSOLINI'S FORCES—UNDER MARshal Rodolfo Graziani are reported to have begun what is being described, for short, as the African War. The objective is complete control of the eastern end of the Mediterranean, the Suez Canal and the Red Sea, with, of course, the gradual expansion of Italian influence.

It Duce's strength in this sphere is considerably greater than that which Britain can command for the time being; but, while military experts apparently will not be surprised if Graziani scores a few initial successes, it is confidently predicted that British naval control of the Libyan coastline will prevent the movement of supplies from Italy unless and until Italian warships can clear the way
by destroying the ships flying the white ensign. It is also pointed out that Britain's most powerful defences against the enemy in the Libyan desert are thirst and heat. For 400 miles between the Italian positions and the British base at Mersa Matruh, on the Mediterranean coast, temperatures of 115 to 120 degrees are the rule and not the exception in the daytime. And Mussolini's commander must perforce transport all his water over dusty trails almost devoid of cover and, incidentally, subject to constant attack from the Royal Air Force and some of the Empire's most famous fighters for years have been trained in desert warfare—old style and in the latest mechanized tactics.

Although there is support for the general belief that every shot fired by the Italians in this theatre of war may bring the collapse of Mussolini's African empire that much closer, a contention based on the argument that the British navy will prevent further Italian aid from reaching Graziani, it would be well to contemplate this first real stroke
by Italy as one to meet with all available resources. It Duce must know by this time that he will have to produce substantial results if he is to retain the good favor of his dominant partner to the axis.

But Italian soldiery this time will not be fighting the bow-and-arrow defenders of Ethiopia; Mussolini's son will probably discover the difference if he tries bombing British mobile forces. It was "great fun" for him to "pot" defenceless natives in the war against Abyssinia. The nature of Italy's threat in the Near East, however, may soon be revealed. And Turkey will be on the watch on her own account.

Gayda to Hull

YESTERDAY IN WASHINGTON MR.
Cordell Hull, United States Secretary of State, issued a statement on present world conditions which included the following:

"The vast forces of lawlessness, conquest and destruction are still moving across the earth like a savage and dangerous animal at large. By their very nature, those forces will not stop unless and until they recognize that there exists unbreakable resistance. The one and only sure way for our nation to avoid being drawn into serious trouble or actual war is for our people to become thoroughly conscious of the possibilities of danger to make up their minds that we must continue to arm and arm to such an extent that the forces of conquest and ruin will not dare make an attack on us or on any part of this hemisphere."

While Mr. Hull has given voice to similar sentiments on other occasions—so has Mr.
Roosevelt—United States policy has undergone a radical change in recent weeks. The real menace to the republic is much better understood than it was before the Nazi hordes began their drive across the Low Countries three months ago. It is now fully realized that the totalitarian appetite knows no bounds, that Britain in her island fortress, with her fleet intact, is the one irritating obstacle to more widespread bids for Nazi-Fascist domination. Nor did it take long for Virginia Gayda, Signor Mussolini's journalistic mouthpiece, to rise to Mr. Hull's warning with a typical authoritarian rejoinder. Says this editor in Il Giornale d'Italia today:

"It is evident that Hull would like to alarm the American nations with a feeling that a transfer of the war to the American continent by the victorious axis powers is more or less imminent. It is now well to point out once more that this information is absolutely unfounded, arbitrary and let it be said for the eminent American's statement—contentious rather than provocative."

The Fascist editor's retort will be noted by Mr. Hull for what it is worth. In the meantime he will adhere to the view that the American people must "arm to such an extent that the forces of conquest and ruin will not dare to make an attack on us or on any part of this hemisphere." And "the victorious axis powers" still have to dispose of a little unfinished business on the other side of the Atlantic before they begin to put into operation the plans which Hitler long ago laid for dealing with the Americas. The Rooseveltian policy of "full speed ahead" with rearmament, together with an awakened consciousness, moreover, will weaken the "boring from within" process on which the Nazi chief had banked for effective work.

Both Gayda and Goebbels, of course, have overplayed their hands. They may be able to produce a steady stream of propaganda assumption that will maintain morale. But
Mr. Hull is a realist and difficult to fool.

Scientists explode superstition that wars have an effect on rains. They do, however, have an effect on reigns.

Censorship

ONE THING CANADIANS WOULD DO well to remember as they consider the mechanics of censorship is that whatever history's final verdict on the causes of the collapse of France may be, and there were many, it will be shown without the shadow of a doubt that suppression of the truth was very largely responsible for a horrible national calamity. The French people were consistently fed on a diet of "credulity, complacency, and imbecile optimism," with the result that they were unprepared for the worst when it began to happen; their morale crumbled easily. The Manchester Guardian's former Paris correspondent described the censorship at the time as, not only suppressing unpleasant truths but also encouraging "pleasant falsehoods." He pointed out, for instance, that rigid regulations forbade any mention of the serious sugar shortage in Paris—yet every Parisian knew it existed.
Articles suggesting that Italy and Spain might part company with Germany, on the other hand, were almost eagerly passed so that their full effect might be exercised on the spirits of the people. But suggestions to the contrary were heavily blue-pencilled.

In other words, a stupid and clumsy censorship created a pleasant fog of self-deception in France, thus, when military disaster came, most people were so stunned that they could scarcely believe it, let alone cope with it. Fortunately, Great Britain has not made the same mistake so far, and there is no indication she will. From the Prime Minister down, British leaders of public thought and radio commentators have been calling a spade a spade—preparing the people for the worst with even some substantial notes of calamity-hoarding. Many influential newspapers, too, have used the plainest of language to remind the government of its shortcomings in the matter of vital defence preparations. But all this has had its good effect. The British people loathe and abominate any attempt to "draw the long bow." It is not their style; they demand the truth, no matter how unpleasant it may be, because they cling to the fundamental belief that if they know exactly what they are up against they can prepare themselves accordingly. The soundness of this argument is borne out by much proof that not only are the British people more confident than they have been at any time since the war began but are also eager to demonstrate it in practical fashion.
Yet even with the knowledge that Hitler seems undecided as to how or when to launch his Blitzkrieg, with the knowledge, too, that the Royal Air Force has been playing hide-and-seek with Germany, Mr. Churchill reminded the populace last Saturday that they still must be ready for the worst.

It should be so in Canada. We are a people accustomed to knowing the truth. Any attempts to suppress it must produce bad effects. The only way to obtain complete cooperation from the Canadian people is for the government at Ottawa to take them into its confidence in all matters which directly or indirectly involve the nation's war effort. Not that they expect the ministers in charge of vital departments to tell the public everything they are doing or everything they know.
Canadians have as much common sense as other folk. But if there is one thing to which they have a deep-rooted objection, it is spoon-feeding on a pap of complacency and witless optimism. They will thrive, however, on a diet of the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

cidentally, would seem just the thing to give

OTTAWA'S WRONG MOVE

From Vancouver Province

The chief magistrate of the country's principal city, of all persons, could not be allowed to issue subversive statements without coming under the penalties provided.
The government acted after three days. It would have been much better had it acted at once and had not sought, through the invocation of the censorship, to suppress the news of Mayor Houde's outburst. The hesitation and the censorship, together with the questions in Parliament and the country-wide discussion, only served to magnify the incident and to give the central figure a prominence which in his wildest dreams he could hardly have imagined.

The incident, indeed, was one which should never have been dealt with by the censorship at all. It was something that could not have been censored effectively, and that itself was a very good reason for not trying to censor it. Besides, the people of Montreal particularly and of Canada generally were fully entitled to be made aware of the attitude of Mayor Houde on the supremely important topic of Canada's war effort.

The censorship has its duties but its duties emphatically do not include the suppression of news of Canadian affairs which Canadians are entitled to have. It is admitted now that the unintelligent, unimaginative blackout of vital news imposed by the censorship in Paris was one of the principal factors leading to the collapse of France. We do not want any such blackout in Canada.

Parallel Thoughts

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

STRANGE CREATURE

MR. HOUDE OF MONTREAL is of no importance. He represents no considered opinion because he has none. He is one of those strange human creatures who never know where they are going and usually are going backwards with a sign pointing forwards. I have known him for a long time and found him amusing, grotesque, rather delightful and without any settled ideas about anything. A friendly and dangerous man.
But the questions raised by Mr. Houde in his brush with the authorities are important.
I don't mean his attempt to flout the Defence Regulations of Canada, for the law has dealt with that. The larger question, beyond the law, is that of censorship.

The censors of Canada, whom I also know as able and patriotic men—none better—tried to stop the publication of Mr. Houde's statement opposing the registration of Canadian manpower. This has produced precisely the result you would expect, precisely the result which the censors sought to avoid. It has given Mr. Houde's latest outburst more publicity and more attention than he could have purchased with $1,000,000 worth of advertising.

I suppose that doesn't matter much either.
But if the censors start there, where will they finish? They may start to censor the mayor of Victoria, or the City Council, or me; and while something could be said for censoring me, nothing can be said for censoring any elected man in a responsible public position.

NO MIND

THE WHOLE THEORY of it is wrong. The theory is that Canada is too weak to withstand the blandishments of a man like Mr. Houde. The theory is that if his official statements are published in the newspapers,
a weak-minded Canada will believe them.
The theory is that public morale and support for the war can be undermined by a third-rate practionery of municipal politics in Montreal. The theory is that Canada has no mind of its own.

If this theory is correct, there is no hope for us anyway. If Canada can be led or influenced by Mr. Houde, we ought to stop fighting the war now. We ought to surrender to Germany and set up some able and experienced German demagogues. We ought to admit that we are not fit to think for ourselves or to govern ourselves.

But if we don't accept this theory, if we assume that we are grown up and fit to govern ourselves, then we have got to have the facts before us at all times. The fate of France illustrated what happens when a democracy does not get the facts. There a censored press kept the truth from the people and when Germany struck they were fatally unprepared. They didn't know what was happening in the world or in their own country.

BABY

MR. HOUDE and the few men with him represent a certain fact in Canada. We cannot afford to ignore it. We do not need to exaggerate it and we do not need to be afraid of it, but we can't overlook it; for if we overlook it (on the instructions of the censors) then we shall begin to overlook much more important facts. Next thing we shall not be permitted to read the speeches of the Conservative Party or the C.C.F. because they do not fit in with the policy of the government. Already some eminent senators do not want us to see what the American press is saying about the war.

It is like the old Dickensian story of the nursemaid who excused the unexpected baby on the ground that it was such a little one.
The trouble with these babies is that they grow up to be big ones.

By all means enforce the law, and put into jail those who refuse to obey it. But if you refuse to let the people know why you are doing it, if you try to stop the newspapers publishing the statements of responsible public men, then you are opening the gates to incalculable evils. You are imitating the methods of the enemy, which we are fighting to destroy. You are helping the baby to grow up.

ACHILLES' HEEL

I KNOW VERY WELL what the censors have in mind, and it is no small thing.
They have in mind, of course, the minority in Quebec who are not enthusiastic about the war, the people who voted for Duplessis.
This is a grave problem in Canada, an Achilles' heel, but it won't be cured by trying to suppress the statements of wild men who happen for the moment to be in public office.

On the contrary, it will be aggravated if it is driven underground, if the prophets of this cult can say that they are the victims of an organized conspiracy, if they can say that free speech is dead in Canada, that we have taken on the ways of the dictators. Let the sunlight in and the germs will perish. Keep it out and you will get a rank and strangling growth of rumor, intrigue and treason.

GEMS OF THOUGHT—THE BIBLE

The Bible is the only source of all Christian truth; the only rule for the Christian life; the only book that unfolds to us the realities of eternity.—Sir Matthew Hale.

"I know the Bible is inspired because it finds me at greater depths of my being than any other book."—Coleridge.

"The Bible is the learned man's masterpiece, the ignorant man's dictionary, the wise man's directory."—Mary Baker Eddy.

"Nobody ever outgrows the Scripture; the book widens and deepens with our years."— Spurgeon.

"The whole hope of human progress is suspended on the ever-growing influence of the Bible."—William H. Seward.

What Censors Suppressed

(Following is the editorial which appeared on the front page of the early edition of Saturday's Montreal Gazette, but was later withdrawn by order of the press censor at Ottawa. Saturday morning, debate in the House of Commons made public property of the news, and the mayor's statement appeared in afternoon papers throughout Canada. The Gazette then was enabled to reproduce the original denunciation of the Houde stand.)

HOUDE REVEALS HIS TRUE COLORS

HIS WORSHIP CAMILLIEN Houde, Commander of the Order of the British Empire, mayor of Montreal and sometime official host to Their Maj-esties King George and Queen Elizabeth, last night formally proclaimed his defiance of the laws of the Dominion of Canada, his intention of counselling the people to similar defiance, and

Elmore Philpott

ASTOUNDING EPISODE

MAYOR HOUDE'S statement to the press on Friday, August 2, was as deliberate an act of sedition as any I have ever heard about or read about. It was carefully premeditated, typed in advance, and timed to appear on the very eve of Hitler's long-expected invasion of Britain. Yet it was not till the fourth day after the seditious act that the government arrested Mr. Houde. In the interval most of the government's energies seemed to be directed towards preventing the newspapers from saying anything about the matter.

It is childish and even ridiculous to pretend that the point at issue between the newspapers and the censor (which means the government) was the mere publication of the statement itself, urging the people not to obey the national registration law. At exactly the same time this absurd suggestion was being made the German and Italian radio stations were joyfully telling the world about the Houde act. As a matter of fact, it had been transmitted to the outside world within a few minutes of the time it was handed to the press by Mr. Houde. Montreal is less than an hour from the United States border, even by automobile.

THE POINT at issue between the government and the press was whether or not the newspapers were to be able to inform their readers that the mayor of the largest city in Canada had chosen to attempt to sabotage our most important act in the war effort. The telegrams sent out to the newspapers of Canada on Saturday last by the censor's office stated that "editors are warned that publicity on this incident will probably constitute an offence under the Defence of Canada regulations." These tell their own story.

It is to the credit of the press of Canada that it refused to be intimidated by this threat. One wonders whether any arrest would have been made, even on the fourth day after the offence, had the newspapers of Canada not served the public interest as they did, and whether they could have done so had Mr. Hanson not intervened in Parliament.

THE MOST disquieting part of the whole business was the lack of preparation to meet a deliberate challenge to the Dominion authority. As early as 1938 it was clear beyond the slightest shadow of doubt that the Fascist movement was a serious factor in Quebec and that its real strength was in that it had more than a half-hope of support from part of the church. I myself wrote a series of articles for this and other newspapers in July, 1938, after a trip to Quebec, in which I did my best to show the tendency to swing towards Fascism; and in which I concluded thus: "I can sympathize with those who shrink from precipitating a nasty cleavage, but I cannot understand the hush policy which is being pursued in eastern Canada."

That was true then and it has a thousand-fold more force now.
Many months before the war,
Camillien Houde blatantly warned the Canadian people that in the event of war between the British Commonwealth and Fascist Italy, his sympathies would be with Italy. The moment that he chose to translate those sympathies into action the Dominion government should have been ready with counteraction.

If powerful people, in Quebec or elsewhere in Canada, are going to flout the laws of Canada deliberately the consequences should be immediate and decisive. It we have to fight Fascists at home as well as abroad, that is just too bad. But it is not so bad as it would be if the people of Canada were intimidated by press censorship, as the people of France were, until it was too late to ex-pell the traitors who had meanwhile established themselves in key positions from which to betray their country.

expects the government to threaten him, thereby providing scope for a martyred pose, and then to let him alone.

But he has gone too far. In his brazen defiance of a measure hailed by all races and creeds as indispensable to efficient national defence, he has outraged
the feelings of the French-Canadians he presumes to represent.
He has proclaimed himself a front and a spokesman for those enemies within who are working for the overthrow of the nation,
the Empire, and everything they stand for. And explicitly, irrevocably, he has placed himself outside the law.

Section 39 of the Defence of Canada Regulations decrees that "no person shall spread reports or statements intended or likely to cause disaffection . . . or spread reports or make statements intended or likely to be prejudicial to the safety of the state or the efficient prosecution of the war." If a call to organized defiance of an urgent defence measure does not fall within the terms of this article, nothing does.

The law is there. Let the federal authorities execute it.

FROM THE AUTHOR OF THE NEW BOOK "THE WONDER RACE"

To the Editor:—May I express my heart-felt agreement with your editorial comments on the curious reactions of the Ottawa government in the matter of Mayor Houde. It is unnecessary to add anything to your own just criticisms, but may I suggest that when we "face the facts" the whole question of French-Canadian relationships should be reviewed. At this time every possible barrier, and most certainly every fictitious and illusory barrier, between the peoples of Canada should be removed in the face of our common danger.

Cut Few From Relief Rolls

Victoria will feel no great hardship from the federal government's relief ruling which cuts military acceptable single men under 50 and married men under 40 off the relief rolls this month.

Less than 40 cases would be affected, officials of the city welfare office reported today.

When announcement of the federal government's intentions was made the office warned all those falling within the involved categories. Since then the increased industrial and business activity around the city has resulted in absorption of many who might otherwise have been cut off.

The city's problem is not so much the number of relatively young, physically-fit men on the relief lists; but those in advancing years and included in the classification listed by the higher authorities as "unemployables."

STAFF REDUCED

With naturally reduced relief lists assured for the month of August, speculation arose in the city welfare office over the similar trend in staff reduction, following instructions for re-organization in the department issued recently by the mayor.

Last week Frank Smedley left the office to seek activity in war service. His withdrawal raised to five the number of men who have left since hostilities started. Earlier in the year S. T. Sehl, Stanley James and Lawrence Wigley, a truck driver, joined the forces.

W. R. Elford, former truck driver, was transferred to the pound department in another war move.

Official action on the re-organization program is not expected for some weeks yet. With the possibility of another two men leaving the office for war service, there may be little scope for staff reduction when the report is submitted.

GARDENERS MEET

Members of the Victoria Horticultural Society held their August meeting in the Council Chamber of the City Hall last evening. W. H. Warren, president, in the chair.

Dr. Wm. Newton, director of the Dominion government laboratory at Saanichton was the guest speaker, his subject being "Recent researches in relation to agriculture." The full report of Dr. Newton's speech will be published on the farm and garden page of Saturday's Times.

Mrs. H. Marshall won the competition for sweet peas, with some magnificent blooms from her garden on Earle Street.

Members discussed preliminary plans for the chrysanthemum shows in October and November. H. O. Simpson is receiving nominations for the White Oak Memorial Award.

$10,000 Raised In Island Air Drive

DUNCAN (CP)—The Cowichan Air Supremacy committee voted to use a $2,000 surplus to add an ambulance to the training plane already presented to the government, as it closed its drive Monday night.

The drive brought $10,000, raised in slightly more than three weeks. The plane, "Cowichan Thunderbird," is in use at the Vancouver Air Training School.

Nearby Youbou, and camps three and six at Cowichan Lake have also donated a trainer, and Chemainus, close by, has given three ambulances.

Population of the district, which has thus donated two training planes and four ambulances, is not more than 10,000.

GET HOSPITAL

VANCOUVER (CP)—Directors and principals of Seaboard Lumber Sales Company here have donated $12,500 for construction of a hospital at the Prince of Wales Fairbridge Farm School at Cowichan, B.C., officials of the school announced today.

In addition, the 32 officials of the firm will each contribute to the support of a British child in the province for the duration of the war, and for whom they will serve as "godfathers."

Object of the gift is to enable the school to care for a large number of British children.

PORTER-THOMPSON

VANCOUVER—An interesting wedding took place Monday evening in St. Mark's Church when Yvonne Ena, elder daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Thompson, became the bride of a Victoria man, Chief Petty Officer Gerald Orr Porter, R.C.N.R., of the Pacific Patrol, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Porter.

Rev. J. M. Crisall of Port Hope, Ont., read the service, at which the bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. George Mather, and attended by her sister, Miss Joan Thompson. Mr. Arthur Holt was Mr. Porter's best man and the ushers were Messrs. Jack Crompton and Jack Arnold.

Heaven blue was the attractive shade which the pretty fair-haired bride wore in sweetheart style, clasped at the throat with an heirloom cameo worn by her maternal grandmother at her wedding. She carried an ivory prayer book. Pink was the shade of her sister's colonial frock with a poke bonnet and bouquet of blending tones.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's stepmother, Mrs. W. D. Thompson. The hostess received in a smart ensemble of marina blue and the groom's mother chose an air force blue ensemble with gardenias. Mr. and Mrs. Porter are honeymooning in Victoria, where they will make their home.

JONES-CLARE

At St. Paul's Naval and Garrison Church, Esquimalt, on Monday evening at 8.30, Capt. the Rev. Alan Gardiner united in marriage Winnifred, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Clare, Lampson Street, and Kenneth Jones, R.C.N.V.R., of New Westminster. Pink gladioli and gypsophylla were arranged on the altar and in the chancel.

Given in marriage by her mother, in the absence of her father on active service, the bride wore a smart navy blue suit with white accents and a white hat and accessories, her corsage bouquet being of pink roses and swansonia. Miss Margaret Harper was her only attendant, in a pretty frock of pink sheer with white hat trimmed with pink and a corsage bouquet of carnations and violas. Mr. Wilbur McGee was the groomsmen.

After the ceremony, a small reception for relatives and intimate friends was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Clare receiving the guests in a navy sheer redingote over pink, with a navy straw hat trimmed with white and a corsage bouquet of pink carnations. Gladioli were arranged in the rooms, and the supper table was centred with the bride's cake and silver vases of white gladioli.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will make their home in Victoria.

ROBB-RAIFS

This afternoon at 3.30 at the First United Church Rev. T. Menzies united in marriage Dorothy Irene, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Raifs of 1230 Craigflower Road, and Mr. Norman Francis Robb of Princeton, B.C., son of Mr. L. Robb and the late Mr. C. H. Robb of Penticton.

Mr. Raifs gave his daughter in marriage. She was attractive in an afternoon frock of hydrangea blue crepe, trimmed with eyelid embroidery and a small hat and veil to match, while her corsage bouquet was of white heather and rosebuds.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Raifs, who wore a frock in thistle shade with sheer redingote to match, and hat and other accessories in white. Her corsage bouquet was of gardenias. The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Mr. Wilfred Robb of Penticton.

Following the service a wedding breakfast, at which only members of the two families were present, was served at the home of the bride's parents, where the young couple left for a honeymoon up island. They will later make their home in Princeton, B.C.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bride's aunt, Miss C. R. Raifs of Vancouver, and the bridegroom's sisters, the Misses Audrey and Mary Robb of Penticton.

MERTTON-SAMWAY

The marriage took place quietly on July 15 at St. John's Church, Canon F. A. P. Chadwick officiating, of Ethel Maud, youngest daughter of Mrs. C. Samway, 2616 Fernwood Road, and the late Chas. Samway, to James Merriton, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Merriton, 1039 Hillside Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Merriton are making their home at Happy Valley.

Beaver Club's Dance

Drew Over 200 Guests

On the smooth floor of the J.B.A.A. clubhouse, and to the smooth music of a well-known orchestra, over 200 employees of the Hudson's Bay Company and their friends danced at another of the popular series of dances arranged by the Hudson's Bay Beaver Club last night.

John Chambers, social chairman, and his committee of eight arranged the evening, providing an enjoyable dance well spiced with novelties. Refreshments were served at midnight, and the affair broke up an hour later.

Golden, B.C., has a group of Red Cross intermediate girls—six to 16—who are working hard to make woolies for refugee babies. Their knitting is not in the soldiers' sock class, but they have turned out some excellent work and have a large amount of ambition. Money to finance this was raised by a lawn tea.

Opens 'Y' House

PEMBROKE, Ont.—Her Royal Highness Princess Alice officially opened the National Council Y.W.C.A. Hostess House at Pembroke, Ont., at noon yesterday. The Princess Alice is a patroness of the Y.W.C.A. and has expressed interest in the Hostess House branch of the Y.W.C.A.'s war service committee work.

Opening of the Y.W.C.A. Hostess House coincides with an inspection of troops at Camp Petawawa by Canada's Governor General, the Earl of Athlone. Y.W.C.A. officials were delighted when Her Royal Highness, who traveled from Ottawa with the Governor General, graciously accepted an invitation to formally open the Pembroke Hostess House, one of a chain of such centres now in operation across the Dominion from Vancouver to Halifax. Plans for more houses are under way in response to the request of the department of auxiliary services to the Canadian forces that the Y.W.C.A. assume responsibility for such centres close to all large army and air training bases.

FOR RELATIVES

The new house at Pembroke, which provides accommodation and assistance to visiting wives and relatives of soldiers stationed at Camp Petawawa, some seven miles distant, has been made possible through the generosity of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Keith of Ottawa. Mrs. Keith, a summer resident of Pembroke, is a former Y.W.C.A. secretary and a Canadian member of the Y.W.C.A. World Council, and has organized an active women's committee, who have been responsible for preparing the house for visitors.

Large living - room, dining-room and lounge provide ample space for soldiers and relatives to have a quiet visit. Rooms for transient visitors are located on the second and third floors. The house, formerly one of the very fine Pembroke residences, is situated at 432 Pembroke Street West.

The house committee has also undertaken to locate and register rooms for visiting relatives who are unfamiliar with the city. During the first seven days of the house operation 40 rooms were secured. First visitors to stay overnight at Hostess House was a young mother and her seven months' old baby, who had traveled many miles to visit her soldier husband at Camp Petawawa.

Mobile Kitchens to Help Britain New U.S. Drive

By R. J. ANDERSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK (CP)—"Britain wants mobile kitchens."

So the drive in the United States to help beleaguered Britain has turned from ambulances to a campaign to raise funds to purchase kitchens on wheels. Rolling kitchens are said to be needed immediately to help solve the problem of mass feeding of the civilian population after air raids.

Hearkening to the call of Louisa Farrand, director of women's activities for the British War Relief Society Inc., the many United States social agencies now busily engaged in aiding war sufferers are concentrating on a drive to purchase six of the mobile kitchens. Miss Farrand said these are Britain's greatest immediate needs.

"Ambulance needs have been filled for the moment," she said. "It is now mobile kitchens that England has been cabling to beg America to dispatch with all haste. The lack now is not food but facilities to dispense food promptly and with greatest efficiency to places of greatest need."

Every week, some new method is devised by enthusiastic Americans for helping Great Britain win the war. Auction sales are held to raise money for relief funds. Thousands of women knit clothes and socks for soldiers and refugees, collect for ambulances and now to purchase mobile kitchens.

The newest wrinkle was started by the New York Herald-Tribune, which inserts a coupon on its page dealing with kitchen and food items. The coupon calls for donors to fill it out with their names and addresses, enclose 10 cents and post it to the newspaper, which then sends to the donor a menu and recipe for a real "English dinner." The money collected goes to help buy a rolling kitchen.

EACH COST $1,000

The immediate drive is for six of the kitchens, to be made in the United States. In the meantime, money is being cabled to Britain to be used for rebuilding automobile trailers for emergency use until the American-made products are available. Each kitchen costs $1,000.

To start off the drive Flora Robson, English actress now starring on Broadway in "Ladies in Retirement," compiled an English dinner menu which the Herald-Tribune published to tempt donors to send in their money for other typical menus and recipes.

HELD BRITISH DAY

A "British Day" was observed by the Decorators' War Relief Shop in Manhattan. On display were British wares of special interest. William Bell, a butler at the Decorators' Shop, donated a copy of The Sun of London reporting the coronation of Queen Victoria. Printed June 28, 1828, the paper will be sold at auction later, the proceeds to go to war relief. It is valued at $200.

Another item on view at the British Day function was a bottle of "The King's Ale," brewed especially for English kings. This particular bottle was auctioned during the first Great War for 52 guineas (now $244) in London.

An ambulance named after Charles Dickens has been bought by Mrs. May Lambertson Becker, children's editor of the Herald-Tribune's Sunday book section. When Mrs. Becker heard that the Dionne quintuplets were donating money for an ambulance she promptly donated $1,350, her advance royalties on a forthcoming book, the proceeds of which will go to war relief work.

FROM 'A YANKEE'

The British-American Ambulance Corps; the British War Relief Society; Bundles for Britain and the Daughters of the British Empire all have announced plans for raising funds to purchase additional ambulances, medical supplies and other equipment. One anonymous donor asked that her ambulance be inscribed: "A Yankee from Old Lyme, Connecticut."

One mobile X-ray unit, designed for use on British roads, has been purchased by the British War Relief Society. The society announced that 10 portable units for use in hospitals are ready for shipment.

WEDDINGS

ODLUM-STURROCK

VANCOUVER — At a quiet ceremony in the gardens at Rockland, the North Shore home of the groom's parents, at 4.30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Josephine Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sturrock of Nordegg, Alta., became the bride of Mr. Nelson Ernest Odium, youngest son of Major-General and Mrs. Victor W. Odium. Mr. Odium is a lieutenant in the Irish Fusiliers, and Capt. G. C. F. Stone, his regimental chaplain, officiated.

Organ music from the house lent the musical background to the outdoor service. Given in marriage by her father, the bride had chosen an afternoon frock of mountain blue French wool crepe with a matching hat and a grey-trimmed top coat. She wore a corsage of gardenias and swansonia.

Her bridesmaid was Miss Glenna Avery of Toronto, who wore turquoise blue crepe with a natural bako straw hat, and pink roses en corsage. Small Gail Adair Edwards, the flower girl, was frocked in white and carried a bouquet of white heather. Mr. Leonard Turnbull supported the groom.

Immediate friends were entertained at the small reception which followed. Mrs. Sturrock, the bride's mother, assisted Mrs. Odium in receiving. Her gown of beige crepe was complemented by a black hat, while Mrs. Odium wore grey crepe, with blue accessories.

CHIPPING-MILTON

The marriage was quietly solemnized at Christ Church Cathedral, Vancouver, on Monday evening by Rev. W. Vance of William Allen Chipping, son of Mr. W. R. Chipping of Milner, B.C., to Miss Mary Ruth (Mollie) Milton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Milton, Victoria. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attended by Mrs. C. Webb. Mr. Bradney Hall was the best man. Only immediate relatives and close personal friends witnessed the ceremony.

The W.A. to the P.P.C.L.I. will hold a silver tea at the home of Mrs. J. W. Benning, 1337 Rockland Avenue, Wednesday, August 14, from 3.30 to 5.30, in aid of the Pats, now on active service overseas.

Saanich School BoardIndustrial Arts Classes Extended

Changes in the setup of industrial arts centres for Saanich schools were effected by the Saanich School Board last night following an interview with the teachers who will preside over these classes.

Principal difference from the former arrangement was the extending of the industrial arts classes to Grades 8 to 12 instead of taking in only Grades 7 and 8 as was formerly the case.

After discussing the arrangement of the various centres with Thomas Quayle, boys' instructor and Miss D. de Jong, girls' instructor, the board decided to eliminate the three inner ward centres where it was formerly intended to have both boys and girls attend.

Instead the Tolmie School will be used as a boys' centre for woodwork, metal work and drafting and Mount View High School will be the girls' centre for sewing classes. The centre for the outer district will remain at Mount Newton High School, where both boys and girls will attend.

The works and grounds committee reported completion of the painting contracts at Mount View High, Strawberry Vale and West Saanich schools.

Catholic Youth
At Convention

Members of the Catholic Youth organization from all parts of Vancouver Island went to Nanaimo Sunday for a most successful diocesan convention, attended mass in a body, heard a message of encouragement and good cheer from the Lieutenant-Governor and elected their officers for the coming year.

Proceedings started at 10 in the morning, with solemn high mass at St. Peter's Church, at which Rt. Rev. Msgr. A. G. Baker was celebrant. Father Bernard Quinn gave the sermon.

J. W. Bellis of Victoria, diocesan president, welcomed the delegates in St. Ann's Hall, after which the party went to Newcastle Island for lunch and a sports program, under Steve McCarthy.

Miss Olive Anderton of Courtenay was elected president of the Diocesan Council. Steve McCarthy, Nanaimo, was named vice-president, and Fred Allen, Esquimalt, was elected secretary-treasurer.

Before leaving for their homes, the delegates attended solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at St. Peter's.

MAYOR'S WELCOME

Mayor Victor B. Harrison of Nanaimo, in a brief speech, welcomed the delegates. Other speakers were: Father L. McLellan, Father McGuire, for Archbishop Duke of Vancouver; James Cody of Vancouver, Major L. Bullock Webster and Fred Allen. Messages of greeting were read from Victoria diocesan council of the Catholic Women's League, Bishop Johnson of Nelson, Archbishop Duke, Bishop Gerald Murray of Saskatoon and Archbishop MacDonald of Edmonton. Bernard Nelson and Father R. J. Monahan offered musical selections.

Following is the message read from the Lieutenant-Governor:

"I am sure that we all realize to the full the peril and dangers that beset our Empire at the present time, and how very necessary and vital it is that every man and woman, old or young, do everything and make every sacrifice in his or her power in the effort to free the Empire from the evil thing that threatens its very existence. I am equally sure that you—who are representative of the youth of the whole nation—realize that upon the faith and efforts of the young men and women of the Empire depends, to so large an extent, the future safety and security of our homes and country."

MILWAUKEE VISITORS

Yesterday 33 members of the Catholic Youth Organization from Milwaukee, accompanied by four priests, arrived in Victoria on a brief visit. They went sightseeing, and the four priests, Father Paul Tanner, head of the party, and Fathers F. J. McGary, R. J. Altstadt and C. Cayol, called at the Bishop's House and were welcomed by Msgr. Baker in the absence of Bishop Cody.

The party arrived on the Seattle boat at 11 a.m. and returned to Seattle at 5 p.m.

Esquimalt CouncilMake Lyall Street
Arterial Highway

On recommendation of the Esquimalt Board of Police Commissioners, the municipal council last night decided to make Lyall Street an arterial highway.

An amendment by-law to the traffic regulation by-law for the placing of stop signs on all streets coming into Lyall Street, will be introduced at the next meeting of the council.

The council referred a request from military authorities to place military stop signs for army drivers only, at Peters and Lyall Streets, Gore and Lyall Streets, and Gore and Head Streets, to the chief of police.

PROPERTY SOLD

Six different people made offers for four pieces of property in the municipality.

Two lots each received two bids.

H. M. Spence was sold a lot on Old Esquimalt Road for $260 cash. An offer of $250 with terms of payment for the same piece of property was received also.

T. A. Chantrey's $300 offer for a lot and small building at 488 Sturdee Street, was accepted. A second bid of $300 was made.

Lieut. I. Carey was sold a lot on Bewdley Avenue and Lampson Street for $300, and C. J. Mayhew was sold a lot on Beatty Street to be used for access to another piece of property only, for $50.

Gracie, Annoyed, Hits BackDidn't Take All Assets
Out of England

TORONTO (CP)—Gracie Fields today said she is "sick and tired of this whole business" of criticism in England of her Canadian tour and the fact that she and her Italian husband took substantial sums of money from England.

Miss Fields arrived in Toronto today from Victoria and is scheduled to make a public appearance. She said: "I don't know why I should be persecuted like this in England. Let the British government look up their files. They will soon find out that I haven't taken everything out of the country."

Miss Fields said husband Monty Banks was an Italian subject but that "he didn't do anything wrong and neither did I." He is now in Hollywood seeking United States citizenship.

"I have been working harder in the past few months than I ever have before and it hasn't been for myself," Miss Fields said.

"My home is in England. I intend to go back. I can't understand why I should be persecuted. Everything I have, and the same them, in addition to other wealth in the form of diamonds.

J. J. Davidson, a Labor member, asked whether the treasury knew that Miss Fields and Banks "left practically no assets in this country after enjoying its generosity for years."

FINNS DISPERSE
RED SUPPORTERS

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—Finnish police last night dispersed on the edge of Helsinki a meeting of several hundred "Friends of the Soviet" who had been forbidden the right to assemble.

The group immediately marched to a small square and started a fire, but order was restored quickly after firemen appeared.

Tass, Russian news agency, yesterday reported the slaying in Helsinki of a member of the "Society for Friendship and Peace with the U.S.S.R." and said the Finnish press was persisting in a campaign against the society.

Last week Premier Vacheslaff Molotov told the Supreme Soviet that "Russian-Finnish" relations "may be damaged by the campaign against Finnish circles who try to strengthen good neighborly relations with the U.S.S.R."

Letters to the EditorTHANKS

To the Editor:—May I be permitted through the columns of your paper to thank the anonymous writer of the following note, and to express my deep appreciation for the feeling which prompted his generosity in helping the funds of the Navy League of Canada.

"Enclosed $1 to help in your work. I wish I could send more. Wishing your League every success in your work. A Returned Soldier, Saanichton."

Notes like these and any sum, however small, donated towards the funds of the Navy League, are very much appreciated and received with grateful thanks.

FROM RED CROSS PRESIDENT

To the Editor:—Will you please accord me the courtesy of your space to thank very many who contributed their services towards making the Government House garden party on July 31 such a remarkable success.

I find myself unequal to the task of thanking each one of them personally, however, to each and all and to the public in general who patronized the party with such enthusiasm the Red Cross offers its most grateful thanks. May I also take this opportunity of extending to you the thanks of the Red Cross Society for all the valuable publicity you have given us.

Brigadier-General J. G. Austin, president, Canadian Red Cross Society, Victoria City and District Branch.

SUMMER RESORT FIRE

To the Editor:—Having failed to locate the unknown friend who so kindly came to the assistance of those concerned at the recent fire which destroyed "The Isles," at Shawnigan Lake, will you please convey through the medium of your esteemed column the gratitude and due appreciation he so well deserved? That the prevailing midsummer breeze handicapped salvage work was inevitable, but this was only one of the regrettable circumstances which contributed towards its total loss.

Oldsters Picnic at Beacon Hill

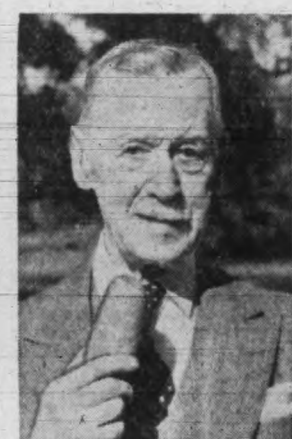

Sixty oldsters, ages ranging from 60 to 102, members of the Old-age Pensioners' Association of Greater Victoria and inmates of the Aged Men's Home, picnicked under the trees at Beacon Hill Park yesterday afternoon.

Merchants of the city donated 96 bottles of pop, two gallons of ice cream, 120 paper cups of ice cream, 192 wieners, the same number of buns, two large slab cakes, watermelons, 120 bottles of beer, 216 chocolate bars, a case of biscuits, peaches, oranges, grapes, loaves of veal, cooked ham and other meat, and 160 cigars and 100 cigarettes to top it off. There was so much food the picnickers couldn't eat it all.

This morning the surplus was sent to the Sunshine Camp and the Aged Men's Home. Community singing, quilts, nail driving, darts, recorded music and other features were on the program.

In the picture, quenching their thirsts, are (left to right), Robert Steele, 83, born in Glasgow who has 40 years of sea life behind him; James McGill, 77, born in Salem, Mass., who was also a sailor before retiring; W. Ward, 80, born in South Shields, England, who came to Victoria in 1883 on board a sailing ship loaded with gun powder from Glasgow in 165 days; Patrick "Paddy" Morris, 71, a Nainimo-born sailor; Alex Ford, 70, a laborer before retiring who was born in the north of Ireland, and John Barber, 72, a retired fisherman born in Cockenzie, Firth of Forth.

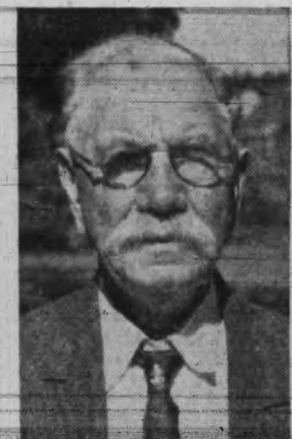

Birthplaces of the picnickers were in all parts of the world. Majority were born in England. Oldest was Ontario-born George Grexton, 102, who lives at 617 Douglas Street, and who walked home from the picnic with a bag of buns before the cameraman got around to him. In the picture (left to right) are: Joe Haig, 82, born in Yorkshire and came to Victoria four years ago from Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, where he was a fireman; D. Woods, 72, born in Heburn, County Durham, a steel-ship builder who worked many years for Yarrow's, and J. Nelson, 70, Liverpool-born, an ex-longshoreman who laughingly remarked he did not mind having his picture taken because the police knew who he was.

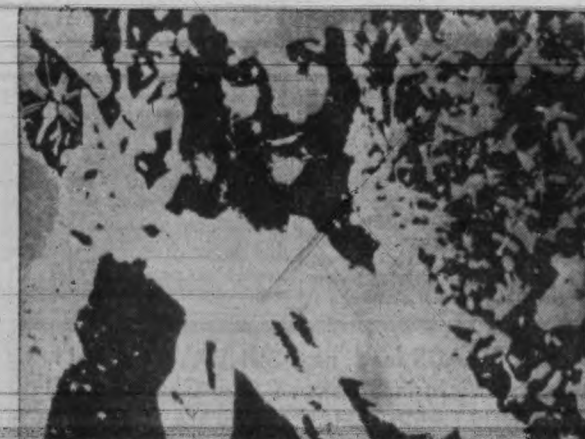

Fittest pensioner at the party was the dapper secretary of the association, J. S. Campion who celebrated his 80th birthday last Sunday. Born in Northampton, England, he was a successful auctioneer in the Old Country 30 or more years ago at which time he wore a gaiter and looked older than he did now. In Canada he worked 22 years for the C.P.R. and retired on a pension. Some members of the party are government pensioners, some retired, and others are pensioners of firms and corporations.

A. W. Perry, 68, was born in Wellington County, Ontario, and came here 12 years ago from Calgary, where he was a civil servant. Mr. Perry cheered with the rest of the picnickers, the words of Mayor Andrew Mc Gavin, that he believed some action would be taken soon by the government to reduce the qualifying age for pensioners from 70 to 65 and to increase the old-age pension from $20 a month to $25 or $30.

John Ralph, 85, born in Cornwall, Ontario, was a government pensioner for 25 years. He worked as a rock miner out of the inner harbor and lost his life. He was also a laborer for the city and the government.

FREAK PICTURE—Sometime ago the Victoria Times published a picture of an airplane battle. In the make-up of the picture, the face of a woman was recognized. Today Mrs. M. Pattullo brought in another "puzzle picture." It is snow on a rose bush and in it can be seen the face of Christ, the Union Jack and airplanes in miniature as if they were seen from a distance flying over the sea.

ARMY BUGLER GOES—There have been startling changes in modern armies, but at Hamilton Field, near San Rafael, Calif., they've even dropped the time-honored job of bugler. Instead, the calls have been recorded, and at the proper hours, are played, and the strains resound through loudspeakers all over the big aviation post. Bugler Carl A. Royer, left, ruefully surveys his discarded bugle, and at right, Private K. B. Kier, military police, is ready to play a call.

PURGE—Brittain Webster, longshoreman, being questioned by investigators for complicity in what Los Angeles District Attorney Buron Fitts describes as a coastwise murder plot instigated by the Communist Party.

FRENCH ENVOY—Henri Haye, mayor of Versailles, has been accepted by the United States government as the new French ambassador to Washington, to succeed Count Rene St. Quentin.

SPITFIRES ROUT LUFTWAFFE WAVE—Playing a deadly game of tag, squadrons of these Supermarine Spitfires, among the world's fastest fighting planes, are reported routing wave after wave of German bombers attacking England in what may be the opening of the promised blitzkrieg.

By PETE SALLAWAY

IF CHALLEDON didn't earn a place among great weight packers in lowering the track record for a mile and a quarter to 2:02 with 133 pounds on his back in the Hollywood Gold Cup, there is early evidence that the son of Challenger II will be given ample opportunity to do so.

Challedon was assigned top weight of 135 pounds for the $20,000 Sunset Handicap, closing day feature at the southern California oval, but did not go post-ward.

Challedon now goes to Saratoga and though weight will stop a locomotive, Challedon will lug a full share . . . and then some.

Challedon's perfect action helps him pack poundage. He has an abnormal 22-foot stride.

A running horse is like an athlete. The athlete with perfect form doesn't tire as quickly as one lacking it, and isn't in as much distress when he does.

He wastes less effort.

There have been notable exceptions, of course, and Exterminator was the most striking in the equine field. Though Old Bones' action was coarse and rough, he was the super dreadnaught of United States thoroughbreds. He bagged a Kentucky feature with 138 pounds up, and scored repeatedly carrying from 131 to 137.

Man o' War prevailed with 138, 135 and 131 as a three-year-old, and came down in front five times as a juvenile with 130 pounds on his back.

Whiskbroom II bore 139 pounds when he set the questionable world record of 2:00 in the Suburban Handicap in 1913.

Discovery, an in-and-out under heavy tonnage, got down in the Brooklyn Handicap at 136 pounds.

Equipose copped the Arlington Handicap carrying 135 pounds. Earl Sande booted Grey Lag home with the same figure up in the Suburban of 1923.

Seabiscuit toted 133 pounds to victory in the Hollywood Gold Cup at a mile and a sixteen.

The Biscuit took the Santa Anita Handicap with 130 pounds up, and Gallant Sir accounted for the Agua Caliente at 130 pounds. Be Frank strangled the field at a mile and a quarter in the old Cofroth Handicap with 131 pounds on his back in 1921.

Sun Beau stood up under 132 pounds in accounting for the Toronto Cup and took the Fashion Stakes at Agua Caliente with 130.

Those who mention Roseben and Iron Mask as weight packers must admit they were strictly sprinters.

The others were the sluggers of the American turf, and Challedon belongs smack dab among them.

Baseball

Detroit Leads Again

Detroit Tigers are running on top of the American League again, and Buck Newsom is back in the win column, conquering St. Louis Browns 6 to 2 last night.

Newsom pitched seven-hit ball, but walked eight men and in the ninth inning he filled the bases with two out. Archie McKain stepped in and fanned Walt Judnick to end the game.

Cleveland Indians divided a doubleheader to back out of the momentary margin they had assumed Monday. Lefty Thornton lost to Chicago White Sox, pitched his second successive two-hitter to whip the Tribe 5 to 1 in the first game. Cleveland edged out a 3 to 2 decision in the night-cap.

The best twirling was a one-hit performance by Sid Hudson, Washington's pickup from the class D Florida State League.

Hudson shut out Philadelphia Athletics 11 to 0.

New York Yankees dropped their fourth straight game, 8 to 3, to the Boston Red Sox.

None of the first division clubs in the National League went into action yesterday, and Pittsburgh Pirates beat St. Louis Cardinals 3 to 1. Boston Bees plastered a double-blocking on the Phillies, 3 to 0 and 12 to 2, for Philadelphia's sixth straight setback.

COAST LEAGUE

All was confusion in Coast League ranks today after a night of daffy diamond events that saw the Oakland A's topple the conference kingpin, Seattle, and yet lose its undivided claim on second place.

Oakland won only once, while Los Angeles, out in two games against San Diego, won both of them. The 14 to 5 and 2 to 1 scores sent the Angels into a clinch with Oakland in the runner-up position, 16 games behind the Rainiers.

Meanwhile Sacramento was losing a freak decision to San Francisco, 3 to 2, but moving into the first division .001 percentage points ahead of San Diego.

Sanity ruled in Portland, where the most consistent losses in the league dropped the split-week opener to Hollywood, 7 to 5, although they gave the Stars a five-run fright in the ninth inning.

The Oaks, with a three-run rally in the second inning sparked by left fielder Marv Gudat's triple, smeared up pitcher Hal Turpin's effort to win his 19th for Seattle.

The six-hit masterpiece hurled by Lanky Stan Corbett of the Oaks gave him 14 wins and three losses for the season. The Oaks won 4 to 2.

Third Straight Win Gives Longshoremen Ball Title

Bays Register One-sided Win

In one of the slowest exhibitions of lacrosse this season, Manager Harry Sargison's Alert Service stickhandlers were handed a 27 to 18 defeat by James Bay last night at the Victoria Sports Centre, bringing the two teams into a tie for top berth. Although the Alerts made numerous attacks on goal, teamwork was lacking, and the evening's play proved a dull succession of individual tries.

The first quarter went according to Hoyte with the teams scoring goal for goal, the tally being 6 to 6 at the first breather. In the second quarter the Bays jumped into the lead after a fracas ensued, in which Austin Cullin and Tom Carney drew major penalties, going off for the rest of the game. Following this, the Alerts could not hold the passes and the Bays climbed steadily to a 16 to 10 lead at the halfway mark.

In the last two quarters the Alerts tried time and time again to even up the score and the Bays' goalie, Art McKim, turned in a near perfect exhibition of net minding. Ernie Gawley, Alerts' goalie, had a bad night as the Bays continually slipped in shots that might easily have been saved. The Bays continued their drive and the game ended with them well out in front.

Bob Wallace of the Bays was the star of the evening, tallying nine goals. Buzz Brown topped the Alerts' scorers with five markers to his credit.

The game was refereed by Brynjolfsson and Ross.

Art McKim, Bays' goalie, stopped 45 shots and Ernie Gawley stopped 35 shots for the Alerts.

In the preliminary tussle, McLean's Bakery defeated Douglas Tire 18 to 10.

RAY BYERS IS OUTSTANDING; RECEIVE CUPS

Victoria Longshoremen are lower island softball champions.

Last night at the Athletic Park they turned back Cameron Lumber for the third straight time. The score was 8 to 2. Longshoremen will now meet Ladysmith in a best-of-three playoff for the island championship the winner to go into the British Columbia final against the mainland winners.

Pitcher Ray Byers was the hero in last night's victory. In addition to pitching his second win of the series, Byers was the big noise at the plate, cracking out a home run, double and single for a perfect night. The elongated, good-natured hurler received a nice hand from the large crowd for his outstanding performance.

Following the game, W. Jones, president of the Lower Island Softball Association, presented the Patton Cup, representing the lower island championship, and the Colonist Cup, emblematic of the A division crown, to Vic Dale, captain of the Longshoremen. The Bert Waude Cup for runner-up honors in the league was presented to Lorne Murray of Camerons.

Camerons opened the ball game as if they would carry the series beyond three games. After Happy Milliken had been called out in the first inning for failing to touch second, after racing all around the sacks, the lumbermen got one run. Milliken's hit should have been good for only a single but Hornsby, in left field for Longshoremen, allowed the ball to go through him. Andrews singled, stole second and scored on McKean's single over shortstop.

CITY GOLF AT COLWOOD LINKS

Annual men's city golf championship will be played over the Colwood course, starting with an 18-hole qualifying round on August 25. This was the decision reached at a recent meeting of the Victoria and District Golf Committee, under whose auspices the tournament will be staged.

First round of match play will be run off the same day as the qualifier. Second round and semifinals are scheduled for September 1, and the final on September 2, over 36 holes.

All flights, other than the championship and first, will be played on handicap.

"Beacon Hill is the finest spot in the finest city in the world."

I've lived in Pennsylvania 40 years but I am going to stay here the rest of my life. I would rather have one dollar here than ten dollars in any other city in the world," Robert G. Jackson said this morning.

Mr. Jackson regretted there were no Sunday band concerts in the park.

"They were wonderful," he remarked. "If the city won't foot the bill the citizens should start a subscription list."

Mentioning that he was born in England and was a U.S. citizen Mr. Jackson said he had bought a home here and hoped soon to receive two evacuees from London.

Arms Plans Detailed

Hundreds of Millions More
For U.S. Weapons for Britain

WASHINGTON (AP)—The British government started negotiations here today for "hundreds of millions of dollars" of tanks, artillery and other supplies in addition to all previous Allied orders.

Arthur B. Purvis, chief British purchasing agent, who presented the program to Treasury Secretary Morgenthau, told reporters his government was now seeking the purchase of many types of supplies not previously purchased in this country. He emphasized tanks and field artillery.

Purvis added the new program he was disclosing was the same one referred to today by Arthur Greenwood in the British House of Commons.

New Weapons
To Be Provided

Britain previously had bought some old artillery the United States army had left over from the World War, but the new program is for new weapons.

He declined to estimate to what figure the new program might expand total British purchases in this country, but previous purchases, mostly airplanes, amounted to well over $1,000,000.

The British agent went on to explain the new program was for material to be delivered a considerable time in the future.

He indicated previous purchases had been made, to a large extent, on the basis of immediate needs, and the new programs were being shaped on anticipated future needs.

Plans Parallel
U.S. Preparations

LONDON (AP)—Arthur Greenwood, Labor member of the war cabinet, told Britain today that to win the war she must now carry out a much more extensive program, "which must be related to the American national defence preparations."

Opening a debate in the House of Commons on Britain's wartime economic policy, he said:

"The need to supplement our own production by drawing on the vast and invulnerable capacity of North America has immensely increased since the fall of France."

"While but a few months ago we were placing orders with American industry to supplement the deficiencies in combined Allied production, we now need to embark on a much more extensive program."

Mr. Greenwood announced the organization of a committee composed of himself as chairman, Neville Chamberlain and Sir Kingsley Wood to direct Britain's economic war policy.

The committee would be a wartime experiment with the task of concerting and directing the work of all ministerial committees dealing with economic problems.

British Experts
Aid U.S. Plants

The staff assisting the British purchasing commission in the United States would be augmented "by experts with practical experience such as the United States have not had in the production and operation of different types of armament," he said.

"Our object is to keep down the prices of necessities, and we are spending considerable sums to do it. The policy of anchoring the prices of essential commodities will be continued to insure the unimpairment of the health of the nation."

All Resources
Of Empire Aid Friends

He said "the war may be prolonged and prodigious suffering may be inflicted before victory is achieved, unless all the economic resources of our commonwealth, our Allies and friends are mobilized to the fullest possible extent."

He stated Germany and the territories she has overrun are facing famine this winter and that next spring the pinch will be even worse.

Starvation Menace
To Hitler's Moves

"Hitler cannot add starvation to slavery without running the grave risk of revolution within his own territory," Mr. Greenwood added.

Some of Germany's chief industrial areas and airbases have "suffered very heavy punishment" from British fliers, and the "output undoubtedly is seriously interfered with," the minister said.

"Oil refineries, stores, railway junctions, marshalling yards, docks and ships have been and will continue to be targets for our deadly bombing planes, night by night and week by week, more heavily as our bombing strength increases."

British Shipping
Holds Up Well

Turning to shipping, which he said was "not too bad," he warned that "our ports and shipping will be among the main objectives of the enemy's attacks."

"Starvation of the people of this country is impossible," Mr. Greenwood declared.

He concluded with a resume of efforts to increase food stocks and to reduce the intake of commodities which are "not indispensable."

1,000 More Men
For Home Guard

Enlistments in the veterans' guard in British Columbia will be increased by 1,000 men as part of the internal security program for the province. Attorney-General Wismer announced on his return this morning from a flying trip to Ottawa, where he completed negotiations with federal authorities.

Mr. Wismer had previously advised that an additional 750 men would be used, but this has been raised. There will be four companies of 250 each, he said.

At least one will be stationed here and another in the Fraser Valley.

House of Stuart Had Tragic History

If you look into the history of a royal family, you may find a great deal of adventure and sadness, but you will have to search a long time to match the story of the House of Stuart.

Eight centuries ago, a young noble was sent to Scotland by the English king. The Normans had held power in England for nearly 100 years, and had obtained some control over the Scots.

Battle scene in time of first Stuart king.

The young noble was named Walter, and he was given a great deal of land in Scotland. The king also gave him the office of Steward of Scotland.

Walter's son held the same office, and so did his grandson and great-grandson. That is the reason for the family name of the House of Stuart, or Stewart. The French spelling was Stuart, and that is how it is most often spelled in history books.

As time went on, the Stuarts, came to feel more Scottish than English. They fought in battles for the freedom of Scotland.

In the year 1315, one of the Stuarts married a princess, Marjorie, the daughter of Robert Bruce. A son of this marriage at length came to the Scottish throne.

From that time onward, there was a line of Stuart kings in Scotland. I shall give the story of some of them in short-form today. It is a tale of strange tragedy.

The second Stuart king lost one son by murder, and another became a prisoner of war. The third Stuart was a prisoner for 18 years, and at length was murdered. The fourth was killed in the siege of a city.

The fifth Stuart king suffered under a rebellion by his own son, and the sixth was slain on the battlefield.

Later, came Mary, Queen of Scots, who was three times a widow, and who was held prisoner for 20 years. At last she was charged with treason by Elizabeth, and was put to death.

Then came a quick change of fortune. The son of Mary, Queen of Scots, was given the English throne, ruling both England and Scotland.

HOROSCOPE

Thursday, August 8

Benefic aspects rule strongly today. It is most fortunate for men who have capital to invest. The evening is fortunate for women at work or play.

During the early hours today there may be uncertainty regarding plans for the family. The stars presage the best opportunities for wage-earning for the young members who are well trained. It is a fortunate day for love affairs, although in a world of economic revolution many changes of customs and living conditions are to be accepted.

Economy should be a watchword among persons of wealth as well as those who are less opulent. Adjustment to rapidly metamorphosing social and business conditions will engage the attention of statesmen. As the western world attains wider power, the United States must assume great responsibilities.

South Africa continues under a configuration presaging tremendous changes. Airplanes will be conspicuous among the causes of upheavals in trade and government. Naval movements will affect commerce. The results of the second world war will be felt in the places farthest from Europe. Refugees from many countries will find future homes in Africa.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of evolution through severe tests. Business should be watched carefully and all risks should be avoided.

Children born on this day will probably have charm of manner and sturdiness of character. Many of these subjects of Leo have talents of a high order.

THE WORDS CZAR AND KAISER BOTH COME FROM WHAT WORD?

Answer: The Latin word, "Caesar."

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—I have been married for 30 years to a man who has never stayed in one place over six months, because he was always sure that if he moved on somewhere else he would make a fortune, but he has never stumbled on any gold mine yet. He always says that he will go on ahead and make some money and send for me. This time he has been gone a year and hasn't sent a dollar back. Should I keep following him or stay in one place and try to make my own living until he gets ready to settle down?

DESPONDENT WIFE.

Answer: You had much better settle down and try to find some way to make a living for yourself, and for him, for he will never cease roaming until he is old and sick and broken. The men who succeed are those who dig in and work at one job until they make it pay.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—The boy I am engaged to has a terrible temper. He flies into a rage at anything or nothing. Says every kind of insulting thing to hurt me. Then within a few minutes is sorry for it and expects me to forgive him. Should I? Is there any point in staying cross with him?

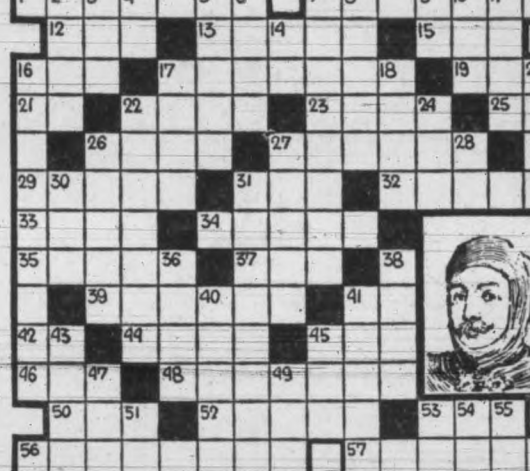

FIANCEE.

Answer: There is no point in staying cross with him because that will upset you mentally, but unless you are a second Patient Griselda you will have your work cut out for you if you forgive him every time he indulges himself by flying into a tantrum.

I think that any man who marries knowingly a high-tempered woman, or any girl who marries a boy who has given her a sample of his temper, is just lacking in plain, ordinary common sense, because no other individual in the world is so hard to live with as a high-tempered one.

DOROTHY DIX.

City Makes Plans For Registration

Alderman T. W. Hawkins was appointed senior deputy in charge of registration of civic staffs under the new federal regulations today.

He will be assisted by three other aldermen, W. L. Morgan, W. H. Davies and B. J. Gadsden, as well as other deputies he may select.

In an effort to facilitate the registration forms will be delivered at the City Hall without delay. They will be distributed among employees and filled out in preparation for scrutiny by the deputy and his assistants during the first day of the registration officially opens.

Approximately 300 employees in the City Hall, outside staff, police, fire and library departments will be handled by the City Hall organization.

ARRIVES DAILY

Shipments of summer fruit, ever increasing in size, are continually arriving at local wholesalers, the majority coming from the Okanagan. Cantaloupes, the now at their best and at the lowest price they will be this season, and pears, were included in the latest shipment from the interior. Arriving from California over the week-end was a large shipment of oranges, lemons and grapefruit. Seedless grapes are arriving every day and are now at their best.

On the local market Bradshaw plums and Italian prunes are starting and will be available soon. Corn is more plentiful and a few field tomatoes can be obtained.

Tour Parties Here

Specially conducted tour parties are arriving daily in Victoria. The Burkett tour of eight people arrived at the Empress hotel at 12.50 today from St. Louis, Missouri. The Brownell tour, comprising seven persons and hailing from Tuscaloosa, Alabama, arrived from Seattle at 9.45 last night and will proceed to Vancouver today.

Ministers Leaving

Two provincial cabinet ministers will visit the Peace River district this month.

Hon. C. S. Leary, public works, will leave Victoria today, accompanied by Arthur Dixon, deputy minister, to make a study of the highway situation in the northern territory.

He will be followed Saturday by Hon. K. C. MacDonald, agriculture, with his deputy, J. B. Munro. Dr. MacDonald plans to attend several of the country fairs in the area.

Langley to Compete

The district of Langley, which for three years in succession won the J. W. Tolmie Trophy at the Fall Fair with spectacular displays, has definitely decided to enter again in this contest, according to word received by W. H. Mearns, secretary of the B.C. Agricultural Association.

The fair, which is in its 79th year, and will be held from September 7 to 14, abandoned the district exhibits for one year in favor of a new contest, commercial displays of fruit.

Popularity of the district exhibits, however, proved so great that fair officials decided to resume the competition. Several districts are expected to enter, including Victoria, which has an enviable record of wins since the contest was first established in 1911.

Cash prizes for this contest amounts to $375, of which the first prize is $150.

The commercial fruit exhibits will be retained this year, so that with the district exhibits the Main Building should have a spectacular display of agricultural and horticultural produce.

Island Woman Unsung Heroine of Shipwreck

The above pictures show scenes as the survivors of the Canadian Australasian liner Niagara were taken aboard rescue ships which came from Auckland when she was sunk by a mine off the New Zealand coast June 19. Top shows a large group of the passengers and crew aboard the Kapit, a Wellington tug which was among the first vessels to arrive. Middle left shows two survivors just as they appeared when they reached the deck of the Wanganella, another rescue vessel. Middle right is Capt. William Martin of the Niagara, wearing hat, preparing to go aboard the Wanganella from one of the rescue tenders. Below these is the scene as the Niagara's lifeboats were being gathered together for the rescue ships as sailors from a warship look on. At left is Mrs. Violet Zuick, Ladysmith, one of the survivors, as she reached the deck of the Wanganella wearing her pyjamas, an Indian sweater and fur coat and clutching all the worldly possessions she saved in the tied ends of her slacks. The pictures were taken by a New Zealand photographer with whom Mrs. Zuick stayed after the rescue ships returned to Wellington.

Stood Knitting While Niagara Was Sinking

A spirit which kept her smiling in adversity and made the cheerfulness of fellow passengers her primary concern, made Mrs. Violet Zuick, a comely, young, shy woman of Ladysmith, an unsung heroine of the disaster which struck R.M.S. Niagara, sunk June 19 off the New Zealand coast by what was officially described as an enemy mine.

Mrs. Zuick, who admitted "shipwreck on a moonlight night on a calm sea seemed the most thrilling thing in the world to me at the moment," was one of those who cheerfully led singing among the passengers while they were adrift for nine hours in open boats between Australia and New Zealand, awaiting the arrival of rescue ships.

An autograph album, among the few effects she managed to save from the disaster, bore witness to the splendid spirit this Australian-born girl kept up among fellow passengers, for from each of the survivors who signed it—nearly 50 in all—it contained a tribute to her cheerfulness and the effort she made to prove to others things were not as bad as they might have been. Mrs. Zuick, wife of a Ladysmith retail merchant whom she married last October after a story-book romance, would not discuss her part in helping others during the rescue, but other survivors were only too willing to tell of what she had done and the way she had made the ordeal easier for all of them.

From a sentimental point of view she probably had greater reason to look after her own interests than anyone else's, for she was an Australian girl who had just been home to receive the well wishes and gifts of a host of friends who wished her happiness in married life. But these cherished presents were all lost while she busied herself going below decks on the sinking ship to save the belongings of elderly women and calmly standing knitting on the deck of the Niagara to help keep everyone calm while officers and men lowered the lifeboats.

THROWN FROM BERTH

"I was in my cabin on C deck when the explosion came," she said. "I was thrown from my berth by the jolt and immediately felt we had been the victims of enemy treachery. I had been sick the night before with the flu and, to tell you the truth, I had thought then I didn't care if the ship went down or what happened. But when the shipwreck actually did come it was a different story. I was up and out of bed in a minute and forgot all about not feeling well.

"I grabbed my lifebelt, my Indian sweater and fur coat, put them on over my pyjamas, then started for the upper deck to see what was wrong. There was no one around then and I went back to my cabin. On the way I met a steward who assured me everything was all right and there was no occasion for alarm. I am afraid I used my own judgment, however, and I ran into the cabin, stuffed what I could into the legs of slacks, which I tied together, then ran back on deck again.

"I saw the ship was sinking, and the order went around that no one was to go below decks." Questioned about the assistance she had given an elderly woman whom she met on deck at this time, Mrs. Zuick admitted she had helped her.

"You see, she didn't have her passport. I knew the trouble she might run into without it, so I said I would go to her cabin and get it. She said 'Don't you dare,' but in the excitement I went ahead. I got her papers, her money and passport, and she was certainly pleased.

"While I was below I also got my knitting. When I got back on deck they were preparing to lower the boats. I had nothing else to do, so I started knitting." Other passengers told how Mrs. Zuick, in a lifeboat containing 15 people, kept them singing "Roll Out the Barrel," "Pack Up Your Troubles" and "How Dry I Am" to keep them happy. Questioned about this, she said:

"Well, it was really nothing. I was the youngest of the grown-ups in the boat and it all seemed a thrill to me, so I thought I would try and keep the others feeling the way I did. I really felt so sorry for many of the older people. They had lost everything and were feeling pretty badly.

In her boat was a Mrs. Wilson of Vancouver, an expectant mother, who had a young child in arms. An entry in Mrs. Zuick's diary at this time said: "The baby's being fed at 7.45 a.m." and was signed by Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Zuick, who, along with every other survivor, sang the praises of the members of the Niagara's crew, told how one of the crew, warned the baby's bottle by holding it against his chest.

The situation was not without its humorous side, however, Mrs. Zuick said. One of the passengers, a wrestler, struggled valiantly in the dark hours of the morning with what he thought to be an ear, never venturing a complaint because a small man beside him appeared to be rowing—easily. When dawn broke, however, it developed he had been rowing with the steering oar which was a considerably larger and more cumbersome instrument to use.

Mrs. Zuick was a bride of only six months when she went to Australia, returning home after a fairy tale romance which culminated in marriage.

She met her husband, Albert Zuick, at Ladysmith in June, last year, when the ship on which she was en route to New York stopped there. After seeing him two or three times during the week she was there she agreed to his suggestion that she would call back when she returned from New York. She returned in September. In October they were married. In April of this year she returned to wind-up her business affairs in Perth; her home town, and she was en route to her new home for good when disaster struck the Niagara.

"No, sir, I'll never leave again without Al," she assured, realizing now the danger she had passed safely through which at the time had seemed such a great thrill to her.
